1. Adee, A.A. Manuscript Diary of a Navy Surgeon: "Vol. II, On Board the US Vincennes" on a cruise to South America, The Pacific Islands, and Canton. South Pacific: 1835-6. Original Work. Light shelf/edge wear, touch of toning at the endpages, else tight, bright and unmarred. Halfbound, red leather boards, marbled boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements. Small 8vo. np (170pp). Approx. 27,000 words. Several laid in bits of ephemera. Hardcover. Near Fine. (6629) $7,500.00

The US Navy searches for lost Whalemens, with a complete account of the search for the "Mentor" whalers from New Bedford, left captives in the Peliew Islands by Capt. Barnard of Nantucket. Dr. Adee's Journal begins at Callao off the coast of Peru, exploring-in rich detail-his adventures and discoveries. In the Appendix, Dr. Adee quotes an 11 page letter from Capt. Barnard to Ed. Butler: "Loss of the Whale Ship Mentor of New Bedford on the Pelew Islands" Canton, March 12th, 1833. Island topography, their products, houses, the native customs and physical characteristics of the peopel are all discussed in Dr. Adee's Journal. A well-written (easily read) and extremely interesting account.

2. Aldrich, Jonathan; Hildreth, Alison (illus). Family Romance. Portland, ME: Wolfe Editions, 2009. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, beige cloth spine, brown paper boards, burgundy ink letter, frontispiece, tissueguard. 8vo. 18pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Numbered limited edition, this being 26 of 50. Signed by author and illustrator. Hardcover. Fine. No DJ, as Issued. (6576) $350.00

Poems of Aldrich, beautifully complimented by Hildreth's etchings.

3. Allred, Charmay B. Amazing Mabel: Sketches by Mabel Dodge Luhan. Santa Fe, NM: One Horse Land & Cattle Co., 1996. First Edition/Private Edition. Signed by author, else tight, bright and unmarred. Full black leather, in blind lettering and decorative elements, pictorial endpages, frontispiece. 12mo. xxi. 33pp (plus approx. 98pp of sketches). Illus. (b/w plates). Bibliography. A "private edition" of 250 copies, this being number 210. Signed by author on the limitation page. Laid in postcard of the "Mabel Dodge Luhan House" in Taos, NM. Full Leather. Fine. No DJ, as Issued. (1810) $175.00

Foreword by Frank Waters (possibly his last published work). A pristine copy of this wonderful volume.

4. Andersen, Hans; Dulac, Edmund (illus). Stories from Hans Andersen. London: Hodder & Stoughton, 1911. Second Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, touch of glue toning at preliminaries, minor foxing at textblock fore-edge (non-penetrating), else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows heavy shelf wear, rear panel and flap missing, large chip at head (effecting title text, several small chips and closed tears, even toning, else clean and bright (color pictorial only by Dulac shows no rubbing or wear). Mustard/beige cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, decorative endpages, frontispiece, decorative boarders at each page, tipped in plates. Small 4to. 250pp. Illus. (color plates). Hardcover. Very Good+ in Fair DJ. (6032) $750.00

Widely considered one of Dulac's best works. Though obviously flawed, the presence of [most of] the very scarce DJ is quite unusual. Overall, a handsome copy of this significant work.

5. Anon. The Life and Character of the Late Lord Chancellor Jefferys [sic]. London: J Pottinger and J Seymour, 1764 [1725]. Second Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, tips through, minor scratch in paper front board, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, burgundy leather spine, marbled paper boards. Small 8vo. 54pp plus 2pp ad. Hardcover. Very Good+ [Textblock Fine]. (5740) $325.00

A wonderfully unflattering short biography of the notorious Judge Jeffreys. Jeffreys infamously presided over the trial of Titus Oates and numerous other significant cases...bringing his unusual blend of apathy, arrogance and brutality to the bench. It is said that he was "reckless of everything save his own advancement." This volume contains a list of some 240 names, organized by towns, of those who suffered his convictions. A very handsome copy of this minor classic.

6. Araki, Nobuyoshi. Tokyo Comedy. Kyoto: Korinsha, 1997. First Edition Thus. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows very minor shelf/edge wear, tiny closed tear near head, else bright and clean. Orange paper wraps, whine ink lettering. 4to. np. (b/w plates). Original Wraps. Fine in Near Fine DJ. (5934) $125.00

Text in English and German. Published to accompany Araki's exhibition at Wiener Succession. A remarkable collection of images. Overall, a handsome copy of this increasingly difficult to secure exhibition catalogue.

7. Archer, Thomas Croxson. Profitable Plants: Description of the Principal Articles of Vegetable Origin Used for

Food, Clothing, Tanning, Dyeing, Building, Medicine, Perfumery, etc. London: George Routledge and Sons, nd [1853]. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, light rubbing at hinges, penciled notations at ffe, touch of foxing at tissueguard, else tight, bright and unmarred. Dark purple cloth boards, yellow endpages, frontispiece, hand-colored plates. 12mo. 359pp. Illus. (colored plates). Index. Hardcover. Very Good+. (6601) $425.00

20 hand colored plates including frontis, each with several elements. Descriptions/illustrations range from coffee, tea, cocoa, and cloves, to opium, tobacco, and senna, etc. (regarding opium, the author states that 51 tons were imported in 1852). MA Hort. Soc. Cat. 10; British Museum Natural History p. 55. The book was later issued under the title Popular Economic Botany in the Popular Natural History series.

8. [Archetype Press]. Notorious Ex Libris. [Pasadena, CA]: Archetype Press, 2008. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Twenty-four gatherings of [4]pp each (printed across the center two), bookplates tipped onto each gathering, tan printed wraps. 8vo. np. Color and b/w printing. Limited edition of 50 copies. Stiff Wraps. Fine in Fine Slipcase. (6515) $250.00

"Designed, illustrated, and letterpress printed by students at Archetype Press, Art Center College of Design, using using foundry metal and wood type, linoleum cuts, and photopolymer plates on Domestic Etching and French Construction papers. The unbound cover is Rivers BFK. The instructors for the project were S. Cody Clark and Prof. Gloria Kondrup, Director of Archetype Press..." [Colophon] Imagined bookplates of Al Capone, G.A. Custer, Evel Knievel, Little Red Riding Hood, Madonna, Marilyn Manson, Martha Stewart, the Marquis de Sade, etc. A wonderful idea, brilliantly executed.

9. Arwas, Victor. Art Deco. New York: Harry N. Abrams, 1980. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows very minor shelf wear, else bright and clean. Black cloth boards, in blind lettering and exceptional decorative elements, decorative endpages. 4to. 315pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Biographies. Bibliography. Index. Hardcover. Fine in Near Fine DJ. (1779) $125.00

A very strong reference volume covering all aspects of deco furnishings, furniture, architecture, jewelry, books, ceramics, etc. A near pristine copy of this wonderful and significant reference volume.

10. Avedon, Richard. An Autobiography. New York: Random House, 1993. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Clear acetate DJ unmarred. Brown cloth boards, red ink lettering. fo. Illus. (b/w plates). np. Index of Plates. Hardcover. Fine in Fine DJ. (5911) $450.00

A cornerstone work by Avedon in very handsome condition.

11. Baldwin, James, Baskin, Leonard [Illus]. Gypsy: & Other Poems. Hadley, MA: The Gehenna Press, 1989. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Traycase tight and clean. Quarterbound, black leather spine, black textured paste paper over boards, gilt lettering, bound in/tipped in etchings, tissue guards. Traycase in red cloth, three black leather labels, gilt lettering and decorative elements. 4to. np [approx. 24pp text plus etchings]. Illus. (color and b/w engravings). Limited numbered edition, this being 15 of 50 within complete run of 325. Etchings and colophon signed by Baskin. Hardcover. Fine in Fine Traycase. (6193) $3,500.00

This being one of the 50 specially bound by Daniel Gehnrich with paste paper boards by Babette Gehnrich. Includes signed portfolio of etchings of Baldwin by Baskin, each signed. Baskin had been working with Baldwin to produce a book of unpublished poems by Baldwin. It became, "alas, into a volume memorializing Baldwin" following his unexpected and untimely death. An important work in Baldwin's cannon, beautifully illustrated by Baskin.

12. Barbier, Georges; Bakst, Leon, etc. Journal Des Dames et Des Modes: No. 1 June, 1912 - No. 79 August 1914. Paris: Aux Bureaux du Journal Des Dames, 1912-14. First Edition(s). Light shelf/edge wear, "Mr. Horn" in pencil on each wrapper, one supp shows nibbling at a corner, outer wrappers show light to moderate wear, one supp cover shows closed tear with matching interior (see below), else tight, bright and unmarred. Original blue/grey wraps in Ingres like "sugar paper" with deckled edges; uneven sizes; text printed on heavily textured laid rag paper; plates printed on watermarked laid paper (mark of "Journal Des Dames"). Small 8vo. Var. pag. Illust (b/w; hand-colored). Numbered limited edition, this being 1221. Original Wraps/Custom Archival Case. Very Good to Near Fine in Fine Archival Case. (6532) $25,000.00

186 hand-colored fashion plates by artists such as Georges Barbier, Leon Bakst, et al. Each supplement has 8 pages of black and white letterpress-printed text and typically 2-3 fashion plates loosely inserted. Each supplement in a paper wrapper and an outer wrapper around each of 4 stacks (tomes). Custom made archival box contains:

Tome I: June 1912-Dec. 1912: 21 supplements. Wrapper for tome is present by split.

Tome II: Jan. 1913-June 1913: 18 supplements in pale, medium, and dark blue wrappers. Outer wrapper shows wear and toning.

Tome III: July 1913-Dec. 1913: 18 supplements in blue, beige, etc., outer wrapper shows moderate wear; two Leonard Baskin (1922-2000) was a renowned artist (sculptor, illustrator, printer, and graphic artist), writer, teacher and general polymath.

15. Bateman, Edward. Mechanical Brides of the Uncanny [together with] Mechanical Brides of the Uncanny: A Grand Collection of Carte de Visites Acquired from Various & Sundry Locations Documenting the Brief Period of Automatons & Mechanical Marvels from the Collection of E. Bateman. Salt Lake City, UT : Nazraeli Press, 2009. Limited Numbered Edition(s). Tight, bright and unmarred. Printed paper boards, tipped in plate. 12mo. 16pp. Numbered limited edition, this being 348 of 500 copies. Laid in promotional bookmark. CDV cards, bright and clean; tin as new. Numbered, limited edition, this being 30 of 30; signed by author. Hardcover. Fine; Fine in Fine Case. (6577) $550.00

The 58th publication in the Nazraeli Press One Picture Book series. From the publisher: In the last half of the nineteenth century, cartes de visite were widely traded and collected, with subjects ranging from portraits of everyday people to those of luminaries. Bateman uses this history to question the idea that all photographs are bound to a particular moment in time. Combining 19th century imagery with fabricated automatons, he creates images of the past with an iconography that is usually used to depict the future. Additional Case: A collection of 21 "automatons" or "mechanical brides" carte de visites by E. Bateman; each of the 21 CDVs are unique and contain unique backstamps as well [with a title page, colophon (numbered and signed by the artist) and intro on another card]. The entire collection is housed in a custom made tin.

Lux Mentis, Booksellers Show Catalogue (SF & LA 2009)

A scarce and interesting piece by Johann Bernoulli, using the calculus to show the rate at which all of the material in the human body would be renewed, assuming that a fixed proportion of bodily substance, homogeneously distributed, is lost each day and replaced by nutrition (it would take about three years, by his calculation). This was an early instance of the application of the calculus to a specific problem; it reflects the intersection of Bernoulli's interest in mathematics and his training in medicine. Not surprisingly, his argument provoked a serious theological dispute, since it strongly implied the impossibility of resurrecting the body from all its past substance. De nutritione was reprinted in the 1742 edition of Bernoulli's Opera omnia, and also in Johann Georg Altmann's compilation Tempe Helvetica, issued in six volumes in Zurich between 1735 & 1743. Johann Bernoulli (1667–1748) was the foremost European mathematician of the generation between Leibniz and Euler (he had connections to both – he studied with his older brother Jacob, who corresponded with Leibniz, and Euler was a student of his at Basel). He studied medicine at Basel, but on the side also worked with Jacob, who had been appointed professor of mathematics there. They had a close but competitive relationship, a dynamic that would continue with his own son Daniel after Jacob's death in 1705. After completing his studies, Johann taught at Groningen for a decade, and then returned to Basel to take over Jacob's now-vacant chair. He was a strong supporter of Leibniz, and sided with him in the debates with Newton over who had first invented the calculus. He made significant contributions to calculus, and in particular its application to problems; he also was the first to solve the problems of the catenary and the brachistochrone. He was followed into the field by three sons and two grandsons, all of whom were mathematicians of note.

24. Birt, Jillian. The Love Songs of Nick Cave: A Study. Intercoastal Clavicle Press, 1997. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Stiff boards covered with brown paper (as in brown paper bag), constructed frame in same medium around color plate on front. Small 8vo. 97pp. Bibliography. Limited edition. Original Wraps. Fine in Wraps. (519) $500.00

A rare volume, near apocryphal (the two largest Nick Cave fan sites identify it by name and plead for additional information on the volume). Anecdotal information that it was produced for a close circle of friends. A pristine copy.

25. Boccalini, Traiano. I Ragguagli di Parnasso: Or, Advertisements from Parnassus: In Two Centuries. With the Politick Touchstone. Written Originally in Italian by that Famous Roman Traniano Bocalini. And now Put into English by the Right Honorable Henry [Carey], Earl of Monmouth. London: Printed for Humphrey Moseley, 1657. First English Language Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, rebacked (circa late 19th cent.), ownership notations at title page (dated 1673), else tight, bright and unmarred. Full leather binding, five raised bands, red leather spine label, gilt lettering and decorative elements. 8vo. 452pp. Illus. (b/w woodcuts and initials). Hardcover. Very Good+. (5280) $1,500.00

First published in 1612 in Italian, this is Boccalini's most significant work. It is a satire of many of his eminent literary and political contemporaries. This work was very influential throughout the 17th century in large part for its anti-Spanish/pro-Republican sentiments. This work has an important Rosicrucian connection, as it is the "[o]nly English translation of this allegorical work, a chapter of which was bound with the legendary Fama Fraternitatis, the 1st Rosicrucian manifesto published by Kassel 1614." A very handsome copy of this first English edition.

26. Bok, Gordon. Time & the Flying Snow [Art Binding]. Sharon, CT: Folk-Legacy Books, 1977 [Binding 1991]. First Edition/Custom Binding. Tight, bright and unmarred. Numbered limited edition this being 6 of 40 copies. Original Wraps. Fine in Wraps. (6578) $75.00
The first solo project from Ivy Derderian, working at Wolfe Editions. Printed in Linotype Bonodi Book, created on an Intertype (the Linotype's successor). From the prospectus:
"Frederic Brown's entertaining short story about a sentient Linotype, titled Etaoin Shrdlu, was originally published in 1942 in the magazine Unknown Worlds. While Mr. Brown was well known for his science fiction short stories and novels as well as his award-winning detective fiction, it is clear that he knew his way around a Linotype and a print shop.
Ivy Derderian, with the help of Wolfe Editions, announces a new publication of Etaoin Shrdlu, designed in the manner of pulp magazines of the 1940's. The text type is Linotype Bodoni Book, titles were set in Ludlow Ultra Modern. Text is printed on acid free Dur-o-tone Aged Newsprint, cover is acid free St. Armand Colours. The two engravings used are from a 1923 issue of The Linotype Bulletin."
Designed and printed to reflect its pulp heritage using Dur-o-tone Aged Newsprint (acid free) and cover wraps on St. Armand Colours. Illustrations from a 1923 issue of The Linotype Bulletin. A wonderful blending of content and design.

(b/w plates). Index. List of Plates. Hardcover. Fine. (6007) $1,500.00

A renowned classic in exceptional condition. Finely bound in signed Root binding. "[I]t has seldom been our good fortune to rise from the perusal of three volumes so much instructed and amused. The editor speaks of his labors with diffidence, although it is obvious that these must have been considerable. He has availed himself of the best sources of information, in addition to his own recollections and those of his friends, for forty years, to render his work pleasing and useful. It is avowedly nothing more than a collection of biographical notices of the most distinguished musicians and amateurs of music, interspersed with interesting and humorous anecdotes of these persons in public life and in retirement, amid the misfortunes that too often attend the spring-time of genius..." [The Monthly Review, Vol. CVIII, Sept-Nov., 1925]. A very handsome set.

42. Bush, Andrew. Bonnettstown: A House in Ireland. New York: Harry N. Abrams, April 1989. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows extremely minimal shelf wear. Dark gray linen cloth boards, gilt. Unpaginated. Illustrated (color plates). Hardcover. Fine in Fine DJ. (398) $650.00

A pristine copy of this scarce and wonderfully illustrated volume. "A perfect early-eighteenth-century Georgian limestone manor house situated in the wild, overgrown patchwork countryside near Kilkenny, Ireland" captured his eye and imagination, the result is this outstanding work. Foreword by Mark Haworth-Booth.

47. Chamberlain, Joshua Lawrence. Maine, Her Place in History: Address Delivered at the Centennial Exhibition, Philadelphia, Nov. 4, 1876, and in Convention of the Legislature of Maine, February 6, 1877...With a Communication from the Governor, and the Report of the Centennial Commission [Richly Extra Illustrated]. Augusta, ME: Sprague, Owen & Nash, Printers to the State, 1877. First Edition/Unique Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, spine sunned, minor toning to page edges, light penciled notations at the rear of some tipped-in plates, one fold-out map has slight curl at fore-edge, else tight, bright and unmarred. Half-bound, green leather spine and tips, five raised bands, gilt lettering and decorative elements, marbled boards and endpages, fold-out maps, extra-illustrated (trimmed and/or mounted engravings), teg. 8vo. v.; 129pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good+. (5734) $4,500.00 Originally issued in wraps and original wraps bound in. While it can not be confirmed, it appears likely this volume was an early addition to Frank Deering's library. Deering, a renowned collector in Maine was a passionate "grangerizer" and the quality in execution and design of this volume implies that this was an early item in his collection, given away (along with another grangerized volume in matching binding) to the prior owner, known to be an associate of Deering. An exceptional example of "grangerizing" - extra-illustration - in this noted Maine history. In addition to the original fold-out map included in the first edition, this copy includes a total of eight maps (most 1877, one 1799; two fold-out and linen backed, most in color and several double page). The work includes 60 bound-in engravings from earlier works. Most are portraits, but there are several landscapes, ship images, a facsimile of return of the Jury re 1692 Salem witch trial, etc...all tipped in at related text sections. There is one tipped in photograph. At least one plate, that of James Sullivan, appears to be signed [N.B. this has not been verified]. A unique edition and a wonderful addition to a History of Maine collection.

Guiana: "Argosy" Press, 1887. First Edition Thus/Fine Binding/Unique Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, tips through, light sunning at spine at top front at head, else tight, bright and unmarred. Halfbound, green leather spine and tips, marbled paper boards and endpages, teg, frontispiece, numerous plates and a map bound in. 8vo. 261pp plus np plate pages. Illus. (b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good+. No DJ. (5735) $6,500.00

Very scarce generally, this copy is unique. While it can not be confirmed, it is extremely likely this is from the collection of noted Maine collector and "Grangerizer" Frank Deering, who was very fond of having significant volumes finely bound for his library after "extra-illustrating" or "Grangerizing" them. Nearly every major figure and event in the work is illustrated by a period engraving tipped in at the appropriate place. Includes 1782 map (pub. by R. Baldwin, Pater Noster Row for London Mag, April 1782) of the islands of St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Barbados and the Windward Islands. Includes 4pp ALS letter from Davis (1893) to [Deering] expressing his pleasure with the "Grangerizing" of the book and suggesting some plates and inquiring about additional related material. The extra-illustrations include approximately 56 plates and engravings [N.B. many plates predate this volume by a century or more and may will be insularly significant], 1 ALS, and one map. A very handsome copy of a very scarce volume in a unique edition.

62. Davka; Hurvitz, Mark (ed). Davka: Thirty Years After The World Vanished. Israel: Peace Press, 1973/5733. Limited Edition. Very minor shelf/edge wear to portfolio, else bright and unmarred. With An Account how he was at last as strangely delivered by Pyrates. [Complete in Two Volumes]. London: John Stockdale, 1790. First Edition Thus. Light shelf/edge wear, light rubbing at hinges and head/tail, minor/sporadic foxing at plate pages some with light ghosting (focused at preliminaries), several small paper tape repairs at the gutters of first few pages of Vol. 1, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, four raised bands, gilt lettering and decorative elements, marbled paper boards, decorative endpages, frontispiece. 8vo. xii, 389; v, 456pp plus np [14pp] ads. Illus. (b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good [Very Good+ Textblock]. No DJ as Issued. (5273) $1,500.00

Late 18th century illustrated Stockdale edition of this renowned novel. All plates present (frontispiece in each volume, portrait of DeFoe and 12 illus. by Medland after drawings by Stothard). Chalmers's, "Life of Defoe" appears in this edition for the first time and it also includes "A List of Writings, which are considered as undoubtedly DeFoe's." (441-456). (ESTC N47632; Lowndes, III, 613). Overall, a handsome set of this genuine classic.

64. Dickens, Charles. The Chimes: A Goblin Story of Some Bells That Rang an Old Year Out and a New Year In [Fine Binding]. London: Chapman and Hall, 1845. First State, First Edition/Fine Binding. $1,500.00

Entire back taken up by the confession/tale of one defendant, interior two pages address three men and a woman who attempted to make a coin appear to be silver...the three men were hung, the woman burned at the stake. Quite uncommon generally, very scarce in this condition and with such wonderful woodcuts. Two-thirds of the front shows three men hanging before Newgate, a smaller one inside shows the female defendant in flames at the stake. Very scarce...great woodcuts (three men hanging and woman being burned at the stake).

69. Dzama, Marcel. Famous Drawings Presents: Marcel Dzama [Pinspot #1]. Santa Monica, CA: Smart Art Press, 1998. First Edition. Very minor of shelf/edge wear, else tight, bright and unmarred. Pictorial paper wraps. Small 8vo. np. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Original Wraps. Near Fine in Wraps. (5338) $525.00
First printed book of renowned pen & ink and watercolor artist Marcel Dzama. Emerging as one of this generations great illustrators, in recent years he has come from obscurity to being one of the hottest and more significant young artists (and McSweeney's best pen). A very handsome copy. Scarce generally and very scarce in this condition.

70. "The title page of this pamphlet is decorated by rude figures of eight coffins, cut from wood - without doubt the first engraving, if such it can be called, done in Maine for any printed book." (Noyes, 333, citing Boardman). The seven coffins at the top represent Purrington's wife and six children, the one alone at the bottom (with silhouetted axe and straight razor) for Purrington. Purrington, after spending the day reading the bible and sharpening his axe, killed his wife and six children before taking his own life. [After FINIS it reads "While this pamphlet was in press, and after the first part was struck off, Martha Purrinton died -- July 30th." Sometimes found without, this copy includes 13 pages of "Remarks" by Timothy Merritt (effectively blaming the crime on "Unitarianism"). Laurel Thatcher Ulrich included a scholarly look at this tragedy in "A Midwife's Tale". Very scarce in any condition, rare completely unsophisticated, as here.

72. Eliot, T.S. [Driscoll, Charles B.]. The Waste Land [Signed Bookplate and Scholarly Marginalia in the hand of Charles B. Driscoll]. New York: Boni and Liveright, 1922. First Edition/Second Issue. Slight toning to spine, ownership book plate (Charles B. Driscoll), several pages show small, dense holographic script of Driscoll citing and quoting references (see below), remains of clippings at rear endpages (clippings laid in), small clip mark at top of preliminaries, barest hint of toning at text block edges, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ is as new facsimile. Black flexible cloth boards, gilt lettering, all edges untrimmed. 12mo. 64pp. Notes. Limited numbered edition, this being 682 of 1000. Hardcover. Near Fine in Fine Facsimile DJ. (5303) $8,500.00

*"Pirate" bookplate bears the signature of Charles B. Driscoll and the scholarly marginalia is in his hand. The variants of Boni and Liveright's The Waste Land have long been recognized. There are numerous textual variants, of which the most commonly identified is the dropped "a" in "mountain" on page 41 (as shown in this copy). The lack of the "a" appears to indicate sheets printed later in the run than those where the "a" is present. It appears, however, that this merely reflects timings within print runs and does not have a bearing on priority of issue. The first issue is identified as being in the first 500 or so numbered copies, as having flexible boards (as opposed to stiff) and by maintaining the 5mm font size on the stamped numbers on the colophon. This copy shows flexible boards, but a higher number in a smaller font, indicating it is second issue. (Gallup A6b; McBride 26; Hayward 332). This copy, however, shows wonderful marginalia in the hand of noted author Charles B. Driscoll (e.g. citing and quoting Dante (Inferno, Canto III and IV (p15)); Ovid (Metamorphoses, Book Six, Fable V (pp18-19)) and Shakespeare (The Tempest, I-II-389)). Overall, a very handsome and unique copy of one of the most significant poetical works ever published.*

73. Ellison, Harlan. Stalking the Nightmare. Huntington Woods, MI: Phantasia Press, 1982. First Edition Thus/Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Black morocco leather, gilt lettering and decorative elements, housed in a sculpted "Witch's Grimoire Box." 8vo. Limited edition of 30 copies, this being "C" and signed by the author. 30 copies in the special box, signed by the author. Hardcover. Fine in Fine Box. (3508) $2,950.00
The box was sculpted and hand-finished by Stephen Kirk and includes brass fittings (including a padlock and two keys). The box is lined with black quilted velvet and bears a card signed by both the author and the sculptor. This edition also includes a laid in key explaining the illustrations on the box. A pristine copy of arguably the most beautiful spec. fiction production piece.

74. Ellison, Harlan (ed); Freas, Kelly; Duane, Diane (illus). Medea: Harlan's World. Huntington Woods, MI: Phantasia Press, 1985. First Edition Thus/Limited Edition. Very minor bump at head, else tight, bright and unmarred. Black Morocco leather boards, silver gilt lettering, blue foil endpages. 8vo. Limited edition of 35, this being "2" and signed by all contributors. Hardcover. Fine. No DJ, as Issued. (3509) $1,250.00
This volume embodies transcriptions of project discussions and the resulting short story(ies). The authors include: Poul Anderson, Hal Clement, Thomas M. Disch, Harlan Ellison, Frank Herbert, Larry Niven, Frederik Pohl, Robert Silverberg, Theodore Sturgeon, Kate Wilhelm, and Jack Williamson (with illustrations by Kelly Freas and maps by Diane Duane). A very handsome copy of this fine press release.

75. Fadiman, Clifton; Roth, Arnold (illus). Wally the Wordworm. New York: Macmillan, 1964. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, one tip through, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows light shelf/edge wear, small closes tears at head, heel and rear bottom near flap, else bright and clean. Quarterbound, green cloth spine, printed pictorial paper boards (mirroring DJ), white ink lettering. 12mo. np. Illus. (color plates). Hardcover. Very Good+ in Very Good DJ. (4482) $125.00
Fadiman is best known as a long time senior editor at Cricket Magazine. This is "a good natured onslaught on 'tiny words for tiny minds.'" is a wonderful story of a wee worm with a voracious appetite for words, the bigger the better. It is neither vexatious or dilatory. Overall, a handsome copy, increasingly uncommon in this initial printing (it was reprinted in 1983 with different illustrations) and quite scarce in original DJ.

76. Fancourt, Charles St. John. The History of the Yucatan From Its Discovery to the Close of the Seventeenth Century. London: John Murray, 1854. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, tips gently bumped and through, light fraying at head and tail, minor loss at the head, small closed split at the front bottom joint, light sunning to spine, sporadic pencil underlining, small closed tear at joint of tipped in map else tight, bright and unmarred. Burgundy cloth boards, gilt lettering, in blind decorative elements, fold-out map. 8vo. 340pp plus 32pp ads. Hardcover. Good+ [Textblock Very Good]. (6621) $350.00
This work traces the history of the Yucatan from its first discovery by the Spanish to the end of the 17th century. Overall a very presentable copy of a scarce volume.

77. Flanagan, Bob. Fuck Journal. New York: Hanuman Books, 1987. First Edition. Hint of sun at tail, small glue stain to front wrap, inscribed by the author, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows minor shelf/edge wear, else bright and clean. Blue paper wraps. 16mo. 94pp. Original Stiff Wraps. Near Fine in Near Fine DJ. (6481) $750.00

Association copy, inscribed by Bob Flanagan (1952-1996) to Alexandra Garrett: "To Alexandra and Peter - Thanks (ten years later) for the party that made all this possible. Love, Bob 12/19/90." A stellar association as Garrett was the proprietor of the Beyond Baroque gallery (the now legendary literary center which Flanagan became involved with in the early eighties, along with Dennis Cooper, David Trinidad, and Amy Gerstler). The Fuck Journal was Flanagan's most infamous work. The plates/manuscript was destroyed by its printer in India for fear of reprisals from Indian customs agents. As a result, the book is one of the scarcest in the Hanuman book series...never having been reprinted. Flanagan died in 1996 of cystic fibrosis, at the age of 43, one of the longest living survivors of the disease; he attributed his success to his ability to control the disease through the use of ritualized sadomasochism. Long a respected figure in underground literature and performance art circles, he achieved mainstream notoriety by being featured in the Nine Inch Nails video for Happiness in Slavery, which was widely banned. Books inscribed by Flanagan are genuinely rare.

78. Fletcher, Banister F. Andrea Palladio: His Life And Work. London: George Bell and Sons, 1902. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, bottom corners bumped, owner signature at front pastedown, light toning at endpages and at textblock edges, very light sporadic foxing to textblock, else tight, bright and unmarred. Navy cloth boards, gilt lettering, in blind decorative element. Small 4to. 132pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Bibliography. Hardcover. Very Good. No DJ. (4958) $525.00

Palladio was one of the major figures in Western architecture and this volume is one of the benchmark volumes on his work. From the library of noted architect and writer on architecture, J. Sadler. Sadler was prone to marginalia and laying in clippings and ephemera related to a given book's subject. The presence of marginal notes or marks will be noted above and are absent if not so noted. Sadler wrote one of his more significant works on Palladio in 1976. Overall, a handsome copy of this rather scarce work.

Quarterbound, burnt umber cloth spine, beige paper boards, gilt lettering, family tree endpages. 4to. 341pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Bibliography. Index. Hardcover. Very Good+) in Fine DJ. (4848) $125.00

Introduction By Louis Auchincloss. Arguably the finest overview of the Vanderbilt architecture thus far produced. From the library of noted architect and writer on architecture, J. Sadler. Sadler was prone to marginalia and laying in clippings and ephemera related to a given book's subject. The presence of marginal notes or marks will be noted above and are absent if not so noted. A handsome copy, signed by both authors.

80. Four Early 19th Century Embroidery Pattern Books. nd. [circa 1810]. Original Editions. Light to heavy wear, chip at head of one volume, front board disbound on one volume, hinges worn through on one volume, one volume disbound, occasional mis-folds, else tight, bright and unmarred. Black full leather; burgundy full leather; half-bound with red leather spines and tips with red leather label; gilt lettering, fold-out leaves. 8vo. Many laid in examples. Hardcover. Very Good to Poor [Textblocks all Near Fine]. (6605) $4,500.00

Laid in invoice to prior owner, Mrs. Walter Beinecke, Jr. (1978). A remarkable collection of several hundred embroidery patterns ranging from floral to geometric to pictorial images. Scarce under any circumstances, a set of four (quite clearly from the same hand) deep collections is genuinely rare.

Bookplates of Julie Beinecke [Stackpole] and John McLaren Strong. 96 hand-colored plates. A remarkable collection of illustrations from around the world (spanning 1477 through 1868). Overall, a handsome copy of this rather uncommon work.

86. Friedlander, Lee. Self Portrait: Photographs by Lee Friedlander [Inscribed by the Artist]. New York: Haywire Press/Meriden Gravure Company, 1970. First Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, hint of a thumbcrease at fore-edge of front wrap, inscribed by the artist at the title page, else tight, bright and unmarred. Pictorial glossy wraps. Square 8vo. np [88pp]. Illus. (b/w plates). Original Wraps. Very Good+ in Wraps. (5906) $3,500.00

Friedlander's first monograph, inscribed by him (Sept., 1975) to F. Volk. Friedlander writes in the introduction, "I might call myself an intruder." Interestingly, this idea is carried forth in Roth's "Book of 101 Books" where Vince Aletti states, "Friedlander does seem to be lurking or barging into his own pictures -- a hovering, disembodied Everyman, at once here and gone. Like the ephemeral figures in nineteenth-century spirit photos, he appears as a shadow, a reflection, a pair of shoes, a barely discernible shape." A handsome copy of this renowned first work, inscribed by the artist.

87. Gabriel-Robinet, L. le diable... sa vie son oeuvre [Dedication Copy]. Paris: Lugdunum, 1944. First Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, light toning to leaves (as is typical of the volume), inscribed by the author to the dedicatee, else tight and clean. Original glassine wrapper shows very minor shelf wear, light age toning, else clean. 8vo. 283pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Bibliography. Original Wraps. Near Fine in Wraps. (5979) $250.00

Inscribed by the author on the dedication page to the dedicatee: "Oui, [A Jean-Jacques Gautier] que j'a Hectonne en Diable...quand meme! L. Gabriel-Robinet" Illustrated with b/w photographs. Scarce generally, this copy is unique as the Dedication Copy.

dozens of book jackets. Born and raised in Long Island, he attended Dartmouth College before entering the Navy during WWII. He sent back illustrations used by the Dartmouth alumni journal during the war. Following the war, he attended the Pratt Institute. His work was featured in a relatively recent exhibition at Vanderbilt University. This collection is comprised of his work done aboard the USS Nicholson during his 4 year term of service. It is an extremely important and significant collection, as written "diaries" were forbidden by Naval Regulations. Sketchbooks, however, were allowed. This collection embodies, in a very real sense, a visual diary of life aboard the Nicholson spanning four years and multiple theaters of operation.

89. Geer, Charles. Large, Multi-Decade Collection of Original Art and Related Ephemera of American Cover-Artist Charles Geer. Large, diverse collection of original proofs, art and finished DJs totally several hundred pieces. Inscribed by author to Uma [Thurman]. Prior to this publication, Crispin and Uma shared the screen together in Where the Heart Is. A very handsome copy with a nice association.

92. Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von; Baskin, Leonard. Fancies, Bizzareries & Ornamented Grotesques. Leeds, MA: Eremite Press, 1989. Tight, bright and unmarred. [updated description to follow] 13pp plus 24pp plates. (6627) $9,500.00
With an essay on the arabesque by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. The essay is a translation by Alex Page of: Von Arabesken. "Thirty-five copies ... were achieved ... The edition is arranged as follows: copies numbered 1-3 have two extra suites, one hand-colored by the artist & the other in different inks & on other papers; copies 4-8 have the second suite of etchings; & copies 9-35 comprise the regular edition" (from the colophon). Issued in a case.

93. Good, Peter. The Family Flora and Materia Medica Botanica, Containing the Botanical Analysis, Natural History, and Chemical and Medical Properties and Uses of Plants. Illustrated by Colored Engravings of Original Drawings, Taken from Nature. Cambridge, MA: Peter P. Good, Jr., 1854 [1947]. First Edition Thus/Revised & Enlarged Edition. Rebound (two volumes as one), light shelf/edge wear, bookseller's ticket at front pastedown, sporadic minor foxing (typically related to tissueguards), else tight, bright and unmarred. Full brown leather boards, four raised bands, black leather spine label, gilt lettering, rust endpages, tissueguards. 8vo. Non-seq. pag. plus adverts. Illus. (color(ed) and b/w plates). Index. Hardcover. Very Good. (6608) $550.00
Two volumes bound as one [early rebinding]. First edition (1847) included 48 plates, this edition 98 (numbered 1-96; 99, 100) plus portrait of the author. Renowned work on plants and thier chemical/medical uses. Each plate is accompanied by 4pp of supporting text. Plates are a mix of chromolithographic and hand-colored work. "The simpler parts were printed in color, while the more complex work was done by hand; the leaves and stems are printed, and the flowers are colored by hand." (McGrath on the 1845 edition, applicable here as well). (See Bennett pp. 46 about the earlier edition and this expanded edition; McGrath, 46; 94.). Overall, a very handsome copy.

94. Gray, Stephen. Written on the Death of the Late Thomas Gray, Esq.: Original Holographic Eulogic Poem. 1774. Laid paper mounted on early 19th century wove paper, light creases, wrinkling, minor toning, small stain, some minor chipping at edges of broadside, else clean. 9.25"x14.75". Broadside. Very Good. (6009) $450.00
26 lines, 3 stanzas with refrain. Hand-drawn decorative boarder; certain elements in red ink, majority in black.

A fine example of funeral oration at the time of the Revolution. Thomas Gray is probably best known for his popular 'Elegy in a Country Church Yard'. Stephen Gray is believed to be he who discovered electrical induction (and that static charges built on the surface of materials and inside them).

95. Gray, Thomas; Wakefield, D.R. [illus]. Almost Jerusalem: The Confessions of Nathaniel Turner, Leader of the Southampton County Slave Insurrection of 1831 - As dictated to Thomas R. Gray. Goole, East Yorkshire: The Chevington Press, 2005. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, brown leather spine, gilt lettering, hand made paste paper over board, frontispiece. 4to. np. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Numbered Edition, this being 34 of 50. Hardcover. Fine. (6194) $2,000.00

Seven etchings illustrate the unsuccessful Virginia slave rebellion of 1831. Nat Turner and his conspirators are captured in these remarkable colour etchings, two as double page fold-outs. All text and imagery printed by the artist on his antique press in Goole, E. Yorkshire. Etchings printed on hand-made paper from Wookey Hole. Text is printed on Magnani Acqueforte mould made paper. Binding by Gray Parrot who also made the the paste paper on the boards.

96. Grundberg, Andy. Brodovitch: Masters of American Design. New York: Harry N. Abrams, 1989. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows minimal shelf wear, very slight mark from security device on inside (these should be banned), else bright and clean. Black cloth boards, gray ink lettering, in blind decorative elements, glossy black endpages. 4to. 159pp. Chronology. Bibliography. Notes. Biographical Timeline (foldout). Hardcover. Fine in Near Fine DJ. (798) $350.00

"Brodovitch was the model of the modern art director. The essence of contemporary magazine design - the driving pursuit of new ways to present visual material - can be traced to the example he set. While at Harper's Bazaar from 1935 to 1958, he created a design look whose energy, elegance, and simplicity captured the spirit of American fashion. Magnetic and controversial, he inspired the designers and photographers who attended his famous design laboratory with his constant admonition, "Astonish me!" (from the front cover). A near pristine copy of an increasingly scarce volume.

97. Guernsey, Bruce; Cash, Barbara. Canoe / The Nest / The Apple [Three Poems]. Harrison, ME: Ives Stree Press, 1982. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Textured light beige paper boards, red ink lettering. Square 12mo. np. Illus. (color plate). Limited numbered edition, this being 129 of 155. Original Wraps. Fine in Wraps. (6566) $45.00

Printed and bound by Barbara Cash. A lovely example of her work.

98. Guilnard, Désiré. Le Garde-Meuble, Collection de Sieges. Paris: E. Maincent, nd [circa 1860]. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, closed splits at tail, wear at hinges; one plate trimmed and lightly toned, several show minor closed thumb tears, minor sporadic soiling, else bright and clean. Quarterbound, blue leather spine, blue pebbled cloth boards, cream paper label, black ink lettering; drop edge portfolio containing loose plates. Approximately 88 loose folio plates (86 hand-colored). Stiff Board Portfolio over Loose Plates.. Very Good+ in Very Good Porfolio. (6604) $7,500.00

A very uncommon collection of loose plates on all kinds of seats, chairs showing poufs, dos-a-dos, venitienne, canape confident, canape fauteuil et chaise lambroquin, l'inseparable, etc. al depicting in detail the upholstery and design of the material of each piece. Founded in 1839 by furniture designer and publisher Desire Guilnard during the reign of Louis Philippe (and ending in the waning years of the Third Republic around 1935), Le Garde-meuble, ancien et moderne (Furniture repository, ancient and modern), was a bimonthly periodical published in Paris and exerted an enormous influence throughout the world by promoting French styles in furniture, fabrics, and interior decoration for a nearly a century.

99. Guilnard, Désiré. Le Magasin de Meubles. Paris: V.L. Quentin, nd. [circa 1850-60]. First Edition. A few leaves show light edge/thumb wear, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, leather spine, marbled boards. Oblong 4to. np. Illus. (colored plates). Hardcover. Near Fine. (6595) $20,000.00

A wonderful collection of the renowned colored plates exploring French interior and furniture design. Founded in 1839 by furniture designer and publisher Desire Guilnard during the reign of Louis Philippe (and ending in the waning years of the Third Republic around 1935), Le Garde-meuble, ancien et moderne (Furniture repository, ancient and modern), was a bimonthly periodical published in Paris and exerted an enormous influence throughout the world by promoting French styles in furniture, fabrics, and interior decoration for a nearly a century. Rare in as complete a run as found here and uniquely bound.

This is the first significant American treatise on admiralty law. An early and significant scholarly work, it includes a translation of Francis Clerke's, Praxis Supremae Curiae Admiraltatis (1679). The volume also includes the first American history of Anglo-American admiralty law, a detailed discussion of American admiralty practice and an overview of relevant cases. Hall [1783-1829] was the eldest son of Sarah Hall, a noted author in her own right. He was an active Federalist and was severely wounded in the Baltimore riots of 1812 (he was one of the nine that were thrown into a heap as killed). He edited "The American Law Journal," and the "PortFolio" and authored several other rather significant works. Overall, a very handsome copy of this significant and scarce volume.

103. Hansi, L'Oncle. L' Histoire D'Alsace: Racontee aux Petits Efants D'alsace et de France. Paris: H. Floury, 1915. First Edition Thus (presumed). Catalogue raisonne of Chamber's work. From the library of noted architect and writer on architecture, J. Sadler. Sadler was prone to marginalia and laying in clippings and ephemera related to a given book's subject. The presence of marginal notes or marks will be noted above and are absent if not so noted. A handsome copy.

105. Harvey, Sarah. A Chronicle of Birds [Book Art]. State College, PA: Artist Book, 2006. Limited Edition. Bright and unmarred. Printed stiff paper boards with cut-through and underlayer, decorated with Mulberry and rice papers and fabric leaves. Drop-spine cover with cloth spine and color printed boards, cut-through at front board, "nest" space to hold the book itself, ribbon and feather closures (and book lift). 12mo. 55pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Signed limited edition, this being 4 of 5. Hardcover. Fine. (5119) $500.00

Loose coptic binding, elegant bird-footed stitching at the covers. Autobiographical work exploring the author's encounters and magical experiences with birds and some of her life-changing events. Richly illustrated throughout with drawings and photographs by the artist (and/or of her work). There is a theme that runs through the work (in the text and images) that explores, literally and figuratively, the fabric and feel of how the dead and their remains are treated in various cultures. An engaging tale, elegantly executed.

106. Harvey, Sarah. Have a Little Compassion. State College, PA: Artist Book, 2009. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Slipcase bright and clean. Marbled paper boards, textured paper slipcase, printed labels. Oblong narrow 8vo. np. Numbered Limited Edition, this being 3 of 6. Hardcover. Fine in Fine Slipcase. (6410) $450.00

Created for a show titled, "Art in a Time of Crises" exploring artists' reactions to stress and crisis. The work is inspired by a song and through the artist's mechanism of dealing with stress (thinking of someone worse off than herself and being glad for her own blessings). This work follows the artist's recurring theme of mantras.

107. Harvey, Sarah. Wildflower Memoir [Book Art]. State College, PA: Artist Book, 2006. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Handmade watercolored paper boards with color pictorial element and dark violet ink lettering, yellow textured paper pastedowns, rice paper endpages with wildflower/grasses within the weave, sleeves of vellum paper contain "identification cards," cards include reproductions of the artist's watercolors of the various flowers, small porcelain floral button bound into the spine. Slipcase in pink printed paper boards. 12mo. 24pp plus np flower plate/slip pages (14 sleeves). Illus. (color plates). Signed limited, numbered edition, this being 2 of 4. Hardcover. Fine. (5120) $450.00

Coptic binding. Autobiographical work exploring the author's experiences identifying wildflowers with her mother and grandmother as a child. The Identification Cards include personal as well as descriptive information about 26 different wildflowers with a reproduced watercolor image of each done by the author. The cards were designed in the same format and size of the first wildflower identification book given to the author when she was 8 years old. Simple and elegant and a joy "in hand".

108. Head, Franklin H. [Mather, Cotton; Olmsted, Fredrick Law; Astor, John Jacob] [Illustrated by Photographs]. A Notable Lawsuit [Studies in Early American History]. Portland, ME: Ascensius Press/Ornaflat Publishing, 2002. Limited Edition [Facsimile Reproduction]. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ bright and clean. White cardstock stiff wraps. 12mo. 38pp plus np plates. Illus. (b/w plates). Numbered limited edition. Stiff Wraps. Fine in Fine DJ. (6190) $65.00

Explores a curious lawsuit regarding the buried treasure of renowned Pirate Captain Kidd, and a cast of characters from Cotton Mather, Fredrick Law Olmsted, Lady Dunmore, John Jacob Astor. Photographic illustrations reproduce several paintings, frontispiece shows John Jacob Astor dressed in the regalia of a Fur Trapper of 1813 and there is also a reproduction of a letter from F.L. Olmsted. A new issue of the minor classic story by Franklin H. Head, founder of the Chicago Liars Club telling the tale of Frederick Law Olmsted's $5,000,000 lawsuit against John Jacob Astor in 1898 for his theft of the Pirate Captain Kidd's treasure. A hoax that has, at various times, been taken as true. The colophon is inaccurate: the 400 "trade edition" copies were never printed and only 50 (of the 100 listed) hand-bound copies on hand-made paper were printed.

109. Hecht, Anthony; Baskin, Leonard. The Gehenna Florilegium. Rockport, ME : Gehenna Press, 1998. Tight, bright and unmarred. [updated description to follow] 35pp plus 15pp plates. (6626) $14,500.00

Quarterbound, black leather spine, red Japanese silk boards, red leather spine label, gilt lettering and decorative elements, numerous tipped in specimens (see below). Large 4to. 165pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Numbered, limited edition this being 70 of 225 - further limited as it is 1 of 17 copies with an additional specimen (see below). Related ephemera laid in (see below). Hardcover. Fine in Fine Clamshell Box. (5708) $2,250.00

Lux Mentis, Booksellers Show Catalogue (SF & LA 2009)

Includes 30 tipped-in specimens (original folio & quarto leaves from various Mountain House books, 4 original watermarked portraits created by all three Hunters, etc.). Text reprints approximately 80% of Dard Jr's "The Life Work of Dard Hunter" and adds new, previously unpublished material. Dard III contributed one chapter focused on the work of his father (Dard Jr.) and his making of Life Work.." over 13 years. Henry Morris offers his insights and recollections of 40 years working as a printer and papermaker with 3 generations of Hunters. Morris has been cited as calling this work his "magnum opus."

This volume is further limited as it is "...one of 17 copies with the opening page of Old Papermaking in China & Japan in two states--the first specimen leaf was printed from the standing type set by D.H. Jr. for the specimen used for "Life Work" [sic] and the second is an original sheet printed for the book by D.H. senior in 1932. [signed] H.M. 5/12/98".

In addition to the additional limitation sheet, there are three other ephemera specimens laid in:

1) Original Prosectus for Dard Hunter & Son. Fine with penciled "1/17" in upper right corner.

2) Small Invitation Card. Green ink, engraving (papermaking) at front, "A Lecture by Dard Hunter III - Dard Hunter, His Life and Work." Roxburghe Club.

3) Insert. The Etching of Figures. Original title page reproduced at front, yellow etching at the left and "Editor's Note - Back to you, Veatchs" at the right. Included with some/all of this issue, this insert describes a wee mystery of a 350 sheets given by Dard Hunter to a woman who's father was his attorney. The large sheets (15.5x23.5 had an image in yellow in one corner, but were otherwise blank. Through a chain of events told in detail, the sheets made their way back to Dard Hunter III (by way of fine art book dealers, the Veatchs). Part of the sheets were used in this book and the "image" section used to create these inserts, in hopes that someone might know the origin and background of the yellow image. Fine.

An exceptional copy of this modern classic.

125. Hunter, Dard; Rogers, Bruce [designer]. Before Life Began 1883-1923. Cleveland, OH: The Rowfant Club/A. Colish, 1941. First Edition/Limited Edition. Very minor toning to spine, light glue toning at pastedowns, else tight, bright and unmarred. Slipcase shows minor toning to paper label, else tight and clean. Quarterbound, vellum spine, gilt lettering and decorative elements, hand-made patterned paper boards, watermark frontispiece, teg. 8vo. viii; 116pp plus colophon. Numbered limited edition, this being 78 of 219. Signed by designer. Hardcover. Near Fine in Fine Slipcase. (5700) $550.00

Printed on paper made at Hunter's Mill in Lime Rock, CT and including a "frontispiece" portrait of Hunter "half-way before life began" in a watermark (facing another watermark, "Dard Hunter"). Paper on boards made by Veronica Ruzicka. Designed by Bruce Rogers and signed by him on the colophon. The watermark portrait of Hunter is simply exceptional and the volume ranks among the finest volume the Rowfant Club ever produced. A handsome copy in like, numbered slipcase.

126. Ingoldsby, Thomas; Rackham, Arthur. The Ingoldsby Legends: Mirth and Marvels. London/New York: J. M. Dent & Co., 1907. First Edition thus. Very minor shelf wear, spine lightly toned, one corner gently bumped, discrete owner's mark on ffep, else tight, bright and unmarred. Green cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, top of text block in gilt, frontispiece, dark green decorative endpages, 24 color plates tipped in on dark green leaves. Small 4to. xx. 549pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). [N.B. much is in original, uncut, condition.] Hardcover. Very Good++/Near Fine. No DJ. (1501) $500.00

Revised from the 1898 edition, greatly expanding on the number of plates (and improving those already present). Entire volume was reset and redesigned for this edition, a vast improvement. A very handsome copy of this wonderful collection.

127. Irving, Washington; Rackham, Arthur (illus). Rip Van Winkle. København: Peter Hansens Forlag, 1905. First Edition Thus. Light shelf/edge wear. minor fraying at head and heel, owner bookplate at front pastedown, small ownership signature at ffep, moisture stain at bottom corner of boards (slight discoloration to preliminaries, slight rumple to textblock, does not effect any plates), joints starting, else tight, bright and unmarred. Green cloth boards, gilt lettering and pictorial elements, frontispiece, captioned tissueguards, teg. 4to. 46pp plus np plate pages grouped at rear. Numbered, limited edition, this being 202 of 250. Hardcover. Very Good [Textblock Very Good+; Plates Fine]. No DJ. (6031) $750.00

On of only 250 copies printed in this limited edition, including a facsimile printed signature of Rackham. Text in Danish, this "de luxe" edition was printed in Denmark the same year as the English release. "Rackham's" Rip Van Winkel "is among the most thoroughly illustrated books of English. Since the text is brief, his fifty illustrations, which are grouped at the end, come at the rate of one to every two or three sentences" (Ray 328)

128. Irving, Washington; Wyeth, N.C. (illus). Rip Van Winkle. Philadelphia, PA: David McKay, 1921. First Edition Thus. Barest hint of shelf/edge wear, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows minor shelf/edge wear, creases at flap edges, else bright and clean. Custom archival case, leather face, marbled paper boards. Black cloth

Allen & Allen, p.207. 8 full page color plates. Uncommon generally, quite scarce in the exceptional condition found here.

129. Jackson, William Henry. Time Exposure. New York: Putnam, 1940. First Edition. Prior owner's bookplate on front pastedown, very minor shelf wear, one corner lightly bumped, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows light edge/shelf wear, some minor chipping, two small, closed tears, spine appears very lightly sun faded. Blue cloth boards, top of text block dyed maroon. Illus. (b/w plates). Inscribed on front free endpaper by photographer/author. Not often found thus, as Jackson lived only a year or so after this was published (published at 97, he passed away at 99). Two newspaper obits taped to rear free and pastedown endpapers. Hardcover. Near Fine in Very Good+ DJ. (589) $550.00

Published when Jackson was 97 years old, this autobiography covers a life which touched upon many aspects of westward expansion. His photographs are credited with the Congressional establishment of Yellowstone as a national park.

130. Jacobson, Dawn. Chinoiserie. London: Phaidon Press, 1993. First Edition. Small impression mark at front board, else tight, bright and unmarred. Original London shop sticker at front flap, invisible impression mark at front, else bright and clean. Black textured paper boards, in blind lettering, color pictorial endpages, frontispiece. 4to. 240pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Glossary. Bibliography. Index. Hardcover. Near Fine in Near Fine DJ. (4563) $450.00

A richly illustrated exploration of the decorative style of this Chinese influenced style. An exceptional copy of this inexplicably scarce edition.

131. Jannet, Pierre; Lemarie, Henry (illus). Les quinze joyes de mariage. Images de Henry Lemarié. Paris: Editions du Rameau d'or Paul Cotinaud, nd [1946]. Limited Edition/Fine Binding. Tip of one leather onlay lightly stained, else tight, bright and unmarred. Orange full leather boards, yellow and blue leather onlays at spine, gilt lettering, handcolored decorative endpages, hand-colored illustrations, teg. 12mo. 161pp. Illus. (colored plates). Numbered limited edition, this being 458 of 750. Hardcover. Fine. (6008) $750.00

Illustrated with 63 hand-colored illustrations. A lovely copy of this brilliantly illustrated work, in full leather binding.

132. Jeffreys, George. The Tryal and Conviction of Sr Sam Bernardiston Bart for High-Misdemeanor at the Session of Nisi Prius: Holden at Guild-Hall, London for his Majesties Court of Kingsbench before the Right Honourable Sir George Jeffreys. London: Benjamin Tooke, 1684. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, moisture stain at fore-edge of boards, slight curve to boards, textblock shows light even toning, moderate tidemarks, else tight and clean. Halfbound, burgundy leather spine and tips, marbled boards, light tan endpages. Small fo. 30pp (numbered through 34, but 9-12 dropped in, presumably, a printers pagination error, no loss of text). Hardcover. Very Good-. (5730) $1,400.00

Barnardiston (spelled incorrectly by the printer) was a Whig and a director of the East India Company. Jeffreys was, of course, the notorious English judge. Here the defendant was accused of libel within a private letter and, shockingly, convinced by Jeffreys...just as shockingly, he was reversed by the House of Lords several years later. Overall, a handsome copy of another of Jeffreys' attacks on logic.

133. Jones, Sylvie. 7 Deadly Sins: Hand Colored - Signed by Artist. London: Erotic Print Society. Limited Edition. Bright and clean. Portfolio of blue cloth boards, gilt lettering, blue silk ties, card stock inner sleeves. Hand colored loose plates. np. Loose Plates in Stiff Board Portfolio. Fine in Fine DJ. (5398) $750.00

Beautifully illustrated and hand colored, this is a remarkably dirty collection of images. Very scarce and much sought after.

134. Journal of Debates and Proceedings in the Convention of Delegates, Chosen to Revise the Constitution of Massachusetts, Begun and Holden at Boston, November 15, 1820, and Continued By Adjournment to January 9, 1821. Reported for the Boston Daily Advertiser [Separation: Massachusetts loses Maine]. Boston: Daily Advertiser, 1821. First Edition Thus. Light shelf/edge wear, ownership signature at title page, minor chipping at head and tail, spine evenly toned, light spotting/foxing to blue paper boards, light foxing/toning at preliminaries, minor sporadic foxing throughout, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, beige paper spine, blue paper boards, blue paper spine label, black ink lettering. 8vo. 292pp. Index. Hardcover. Very Good. No DJ as Issued. (6298) $145.00

Bears the ownership mark of noted Mass. Judge Daniel Coney (1752-1842). "This report of the proceeding and debated in the Convention, was made for the Boston Daily Advertiser by the editor of that paper, who was a member of the Convention, assisted by a gentleman of the bar, to whom a seat was assigned by the President. The principal design was to furnish the public, from day to day, with an account of the proceedings, through that paper; and to this design the report was necessarily made to conform. For a great part of the session, the proceedings of each day were published in the morning paper of the following day; the reporters were in consequence obligated to prepare their reports in the greatest haste, and incases in which the sittings continued to a great length of time, and especially when two sittings were held on the same day and protracted to a late hour in the evening, it has become necessary, as well on account of the short interval for transcribing, as from regard to the capacity of the paper, to abridge the debate to a greater degree than they would otherwise have done. Many of the reported speeches are to be considered rather as abridgments, than as full reports those of which were delivered. It was, in general, the object of the reporters, to give the whole argument in substance, without being scrupulously careful to adhere to the language of the several speakers. In this design, however, they may occasionally have failed; sometimes from not hearing distinctly- sometimes, perhaps, from not fully understanding the scope of the argument, and sometimes from not being able, through fatigue, to give proper attention. For these reasons, it will not be supposed, that complete justice is done to the different speakers, in point of elegance and propriety of expression, of that the same degree of justice is done to each, in regard to fullness and accuracy; but the reporters have endeavored, according to the best of their ability, to give as full and accurate a report of the debates as circumstances would admit." (from the "Advertisement" following the titlepage). A handsome copy, rather uncommon in original boards. Drafted primarily by John Adams and enacted in 1780, the Massachusetts Constitution is the oldest written constitution that is still in use. The convention held in 1820-21 resulted in amendments that dramatically expanded white male suffrage and embodied the Acts of Separation leading to Maine's statehood. Generally uncommon, quite scarce in original boards.

135. Joyce, James. Chamber Music. Boston, MA: The Cornhill Company, nd [1918]. First Edition/Pirate Edition. Hint of shelf/edge wear, else tight, bright and unmarred. Green cloth boards, gilt lettering, deckled paper. 12mo. np. 36 numbered poems. Hardcover. Near Fine. No DJ. (5208) $725.00
Unauthorized American Edition which precedes the First Authorized American Edition. Believed to be a print run of 1000 copies. A very handsome copy of this rather scarce volume. Seldom found in such lovely condition.

hand-colored, invitation to a publication event: "Candide - Original Drawings Made by Rockwell Kent - For the Random House edition of Candide, with specimen printed pages coloured by hand, will be displayed in the exhibition room - Pynson Printers • Times Annex - through May • nineteen twenty-eight - 229 W 43 • New York" [in original envelop]. Loose Sheets. Near Fine+ [though missing two sheets]. (5664) $25,000.00
Remarkably important on several fronts. This work was Random House's first imprint and bears the now-famous emblem, designed and hand-colored by Kent. It includes a small, but significant, rarity in the form of the hand-colored invitation (also by Kent) to the release event. Most importantly, it is the only known copy of the four exemplars created by Kent, containing 102 watercolors by Kent's hand (103, including that on the invitation). It is known that Kent personally painted four copies to serve as exemplars to the four women who painted the illustrations for the Limited Edition. One of those four was Kent's daughter, Kathleen (two of the others were studio artists Ione Robinson and Wanda Gag, the fourth is unknown). It is presumed that this copy was the one that was given to his daughter as it was in Kent's home at Sable Forks, NY at the time of the fire (thought to have been triggered by lightning). There was some damage to this set, as 2 of the leaves were either burned or water-damaged beyond salvaging (though nearly all others are in Fine condition). The set was given to Robert Paulson, a personal friend and sometime dealer who, it is understood, was involved in salvaging works from Kent's home after the fire. The set was sold by Paulson to the last owner. Paulson and the prior owner concur that the lost leaves are very minor in the totality of the unique collection and that all the major aspects are present and in exceptional condition (the bastard title page, main title page and colophon upon which the first appearance of the Random House imprint appears). The missing sheets were interior pages with artwork on them (as does every page in this work), but were not artistically "important". It is worth noting that this collection is not noted in any auction record or bibliography, it is a genuine rarity. In the end, this is the only known copy, containing literally dozens of pages of Kent's famed illustrations, each hand-colored by Kent, himself. Its importance and significance are hard to overstate.

140. Kent, Rockwell. Greenland Journal. New York: Ivan Obolensky, Inc., 1962. First Edition Thus/Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Inscribed by Kent to noted American artist, George Bogert. Bogert, who "lived the life of a Bohemian artist 'in a romantic atmosphere'" was a minor aristocratic figure who worked mostly in New York and Venice. It is likely he was responsible for the elegant custom slipcase. A noted early catalogue raisonné. A lovely presentation copy.

144. Kent, Rockwell. Strike of Vermont Marble Company Workers: Verbatim Report of Public Hearing, Town Hall, West Rutland, Vt., Feb 29, 1936. W. Rutland, VT: United Comm. to Aid Vermont Marble Workers, 1936. First Edition. Minimal shelf/edge wear, minor soiling at rear, signed by Kent at the front, else tight, bright and unmarred. Beige pictorial wraps. 8vo. 36pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Original Wraps. Near Fine in Wraps. (5503) $2,500.00

A very handsome copy of one of the scarcest of Kent items. Front and rear wraps show the delegates on the stage and the audience. The cover, famously, was done by Kent and carries the quotation, "In the name of the great Jehovah and the Continental Congress". Kent is quoted at the start, "In striking, the marble workers are enduring in Vermont, hardships approaching those of Washington's soldiers at Valley Forge. Their cause is just as good." Scarce in any condition, this is a remarkably handsome copy, inscribed by Kent. A gem for the sophisticated Kent collection.

145. Kent, Rockwell. Wilderness: A Journal of a Quiet Adventure in Alaska: Including Extensive Hitherto Unpublished Passages From The Original Journal. Los Angeles: Wilderness Press, 1920 [1970]. First Edition Thus. Tight, bright and unmarred. Slipcase shows slightest hint of shelf wear, else bright and clean. Blue cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, pictorial endpages, frontispiece. 8vo. 204pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Limited Edition, this being 908 of 1550 (1500 being for sale). Signed by author on colophon. Hardcover. Fine in Fine Slipcase. (4317) $225.00

A revised edition (originally published in 1920) including previously unpublished excerpts from the original journal. Printed by Ward Ritchie Press. A very handsome copy of this rather desirable volume.

146. Kent, Rockwell; Squires, Frederic (writing as Tom Thumbtack). Architec-tonics: The Tales of Tom Thumbtack, Architect. New York: William T. Comstock Company, 1914. First Edition. Minimal shelf/edge wear, three very minor bumps, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows heavy damage, chips and closed tear at front, moisture stain at front, approx. 1/2 of rear missing (though rear flap present), fold in mid-line, toning at spine, else clean. Blue cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, red ink borders and decorative elements, stamped bookplate at front pastedown ("Vaster is Man Than His Works", a noted Kent quotation), color frontispiece. From the library of Susan Mary Alsop. Born Susan Mary Jay in Rome in 1918, she was the daughter of Peter Augustus Jay (and Susan Alexander McCook) and granddaughter of Augustus Jay (and Emily Astor Kane), both statesmen, legates and/or ambassadors (in Europe, Asia and South America). The Jays, a Huguenot family, produced John Jay, co-author of the Federalist Papers, Foreign Secretary and the first Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Many of the volumes from her library were from that of her father and grand father and are so inscribed (as noted). Susan Mary [Jay] Alsop, in addition to being one of the great political hostesses in Washington's circles, was an author in her own right, producing a noted biography of Vita Sackville-West's mother, "Lady Sackville" (1978); and also "Yankees at the Court: The First Americans in Paris" (1982), and "The Congress Dances: Vienna 1814-1815" (1984). Inscribed by the author, "With every good xmas wish to you all / from / Mark Kerr / 1909 / H.M.S. Invincible / Portsmouth" A very handsome copy.

148. Kipling, Rudyard; Rackham, Arthur (illus). Puck of Pook's Hill. New York: Doubleday, Page & Company, 1906. First American Edition. Collection catalogue, 39 plates. Sir Guy Francis Laking, 2nd Baronet (October 21, 1875 - November 22, 1919) was an English art historian, Keeper of the King's Armoury and the first keeper of the London Museum from before its opening until his death. The son of a prominent London physician, he was friendly with the Prince of Wales (later Edward VII). Laking was a keen collector from a very young age (as evidenced by his first essay, 'The Sword of Joan of Arc', written at the age of 10). In 1891 he met the Baron de Cosson (widely considered the foremost expert on arms and armour in his generation). This acquaintance was influential in his subsequent career. His first work at Christies was a sale catalogue of the Zschille Collection, which sold in January 1897. He then compiled catalogues for the Gurney, Spiller, Breadalbane, Kennedy and North collections of arms and armour. The Kennedy Collection was formed largely as a result Laking's input and contained exceptionally fine swords and firearms. In his catalogues for Christies Laking's descriptions contained a combination of scholarship and enthusiasm, which was a departure from the uninspired commentary of other conventional catalogues. Laking became Keeper of the King's Armoury at Windsor in 1902 (a post created for him by Edward VII); Inspector of the Armoury at the Wallace Collection and in 1911 Keeper of the London Museum, where he was tasked with acquiring, cataloguing and arranging the collection. (see royalarmouries.org). Inscribed to William Henry Fenton by Laking. Noted flaws notwithstanding, a rather uncommon volume in such overall nice condition and genuinely scarce inscribed by Laking.

Very Good [Textblock Fine]. No DJ. (6054) $225.00

Early pirate edition, possibly the first, of arguably the most pirated novel of the 20th century. While Gertzman suggests the first piracy may have been in New York, in the most recent Lawrence bibliography, Roberts states this was the first pirate. Though a photographic facsimile of the first edition, it was extremely well produced and deliberately bound to resemble the original (lacking only the phoenix and Lawrence's signature at the limitation page. Lawrence himself referred to it as a "printed not photographed" edition. Lawrence wrote of it in 'A Propos of Lady Chatterley' stating, "a very respectable volume, a very close replica of the original...very unscrupulous booksellers are said to have forged the signature and offered the book as the original signed edition." [See, Gertzman I.10; Roberts A42]

Fine in Fine Archival Case. (6189) $3,500.00

Twenty-three color printed etching by Bogardus. Text printed by Arthur Larson, Horton Tank Graphics. Bound by Gray Parrot. "The Great Mystery is a collaboration between the artist Peter Bogardus, who made the etchings, and Russell Means, who composed a handwritten text that was been relief-printed. The initial concept for the project occurred during a visit by the artist to the Oglala Lakota Indian Reservation at Pine Ridge, South Dakota. Allowed access to tribal archives, Mr. Bogardus was able to study many original photographic references. The iconography in these ancient images of the then still free Plains peoples provided inspiration for the etchings. At the same time the reality of late 20th century reservation life served to temper any tendency to romanticize the past. Thus the etchings are a vehicle for revisiting history while the text by Russell Means connects this history to the present, the "now time". Mr. Means is an Oglala Lakota and one of the founders of the American Indian Movement; he has been instrumental in activating pride among his people and awareness of their condition among the people of the larger US society and beyond. He is renowned as an orator. His captions to the etchings are contemporary responses to the history of his peoples' contact with those who came from Europe. The extended prose is based on a traditional prayer on the horizon at dawn. The Great Mystery is one name for the Creator.

Limited numbered edition, this being 225 for 260. Hardcover. Fine in Very Good Box. (6162) $750.00

Explores the nature of "a tenth of a second" and Hamilton Watch Company. One of Morley's more uncommon commercial endeavors. A pristine copy is its original, rather uncommon, publishers box.

184. Morley, John. The Making of the Royal Pavilion Brighton: Designs and Drawings. London: Sotheby Publications, 1984. First Edition. Owner signature at front pastedown, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows minor shelf/edge wear, else bright and clean. Red cloth boards, gilt lettering, pictorial endpages. 4to. 280pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Catalogues. Index. Hardcover. Near Fine in Very Good+ DJ. (4562) $275.00

A richly illustrated exploration of the creation of the renowned Royal Pavilion, many of the design plans (both used and unused) have never before been published. From the library of noted architect and writer on architecture, J. Sadler. Sadler was prone to marginalia and laying in clippings and ephemera related to a given book's subject. The presence of marginal notes or marks will be noted above and are absent if not so noted. A very handsome copy of this significant reference and rather scarce volume.

185. Morse, Jedidiah (ed). Annals of the American Revolution; or a Record of the Causes and Events...and an Appendix containing a Biography of the Principal Military Officers who were Instrumental in Achieving Our Independence. Hartford, CT : [American Universal Gazetteer], 1824. First edition thus of this extremely important work. Overall, a handsome copy of an increasingly difficult to secure work.

191. Musidora [Roques, Jeanne (aka Irma Vep)]. Paroxysmes: De L'Amour a La Mort. Paris: Editions Eugene Figuiere, 1934. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, several small, closed tears in the overlapped fore-edge wrapper, light toning at spine, touch of soiling, touch of toning to text block edges, spine slightly cocked, inscription by author at ffep, else tight and clean. Original printed wraps, black ink lettering and decorative elements. Small 8vo. 251pp. Original Wraps. Very Good in Wraps. (6564) $750.00

First trade edition of this novel, written under the pseudonym by Ur-vamp and silent film star Jeanne Roques, best known for her role as Irma Vep (anagram of Vampire) in Louis Feuillade's seminal pre-surrealist film serial "Les Vampires"-a series often lauded as the birth of avant-garde cinema. Inscribed by Musidora at the ffep to noted French artist, Marcel Caron. At a time when women's activities in film were usually limited to acting, Roques was unusual in that she went on to become a writer and director of some renown, directing 10 films (all but two of which are lost). Scarce generally, quite rare inscribed.

192. Nadelhoffer, Hans. Cartier: Jewelers Extraordinary. New York: Harry N. Abrams, 1984. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ Fine and in Brodart. Blue cloth boards, gilt. 293pp. Illus. "[A]uthorized story of this legendary firm, told with never before published photographs and working sketches." Includes plates dating back to the early 1900s and personal sketchbooks of the Cartier family and key designers. This is the definitive volume on the history of the jeweler all others are measured against. A truly outstanding copy.

193. Needham, Alfred C. Alfred C. Needham: Strictly Private [Holographic Journal]. Personal Journal, 1890s. Light shelf/edge wear, touch of toning at text block edges, one or two tipped in items removed, "Tommy Tompkins" photo plate at front paste down, else tight and unmarred. Halfbound, black leather spine and tips, gilt decorative elements at spine, marbled boards. Small 8vo. np. Tipped in clipping, handwritten and typewritten sheets. Hardcover. Very Good+. No DJ as Issued. (5300) $1,450.00

Alfred Carter Needham was a well known Cape Ann, MA area artist and Yale graduate. Needham was a member of the Copley Society; Rockport Art Assoc.; Gloucester North Shore A.A. He exhibited at the PAFA. Born in 1872, this journal appears to cover his college years (+/-), the first date in early 1890 and the last in 1896. While there are some interesting clipping tipped in, what sets it apart is that it is rich in original prose and wit, much of it revolving around the Harvard and Yale rivalry...it also includes a fair bit of amorous notes and musings. Marked "Strictly Private" at the ffep, it is an exceptional example of a reasonably early personal journal made all the more significant as it is in the hand of a relatively well known New England artist.

194. Norman, Benjamin Moore. Rambles in Yucatan. Notes of Travel through the Peninsula Including a Visit to the Remarkable Ruins of Chi-Chen, Kabah, Zayi, and Uxmal. leaves, inscribed by author at the ffep, else tight, bright and unmarred. Navy blue cloth boards, printed only on right side. Custom drop-spine clamshell case, leather spine, printed paper boards, gilt lettering, archival folio for ephemera items. Small 8vo. 352pp. Inscribed by O'Neill to Jay Cisco [son of renowned New York banker, financier and US Asst. Treasury Secretary, John Jay Cisco]. Hardcover. Near Fine in Fine Case. (5422) $2,250.00
Strange Interlude (1928), by American dramatist Eugene O'Neill, was a huge success when first produced by the Theatre Guild at the John Golden Theatre in New York City in 1928. It won the Pulitzer Prize and became the most successful American play to date. A very long play, lasting over five hours in performance, the length of the play derives from O'Neill's revival of two theatrical devices that had fallen out of favor for nearly a century: the soliloquy (in which a character alone on the stage speaks his or her thoughts aloud) and the aside (which enables characters to reveal their thoughts to the audience but not to the other characters on stage). Widely considered the first play in which O'Neill revealed the full depth of his skill as a dramatist. A remarkable find, a production script from this first performance of this renowned play...inscribed by O'Neill. Housed in elegant drop-spine slipcase and includes additional archival folio housing original New York Times review of the first production (folded, light even toning) and an original program from the first production at the John Golden Theatre (hint of toning at the very top of the front wrap, else tight, bright and unmarred). An exceptional collection of material for the sophisticated O'Neill collection.

197. Osler, William. Alabama Student and Other Biographical Essays. London: Oxford Press, 1908 [1926]. Second Edition. Minor shelf wear, owner signature on ffep, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows touch of toning at spine several small, closed tears, light chipping (focused at head and heel), two moderate closed tears at hinge and front flap, else clean. Red cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, in blind decorative elements, frontispiece, tissue guards. 334pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Hardcover. Near Fine in Very Good DJ. (3085) $125.00
Photogravure portraits throughout. This is the photographically produced re-issue of this 1908 classic containing essays on Beaumont, Fracastorius, Harvey, Holmes, Keats, Locke and others. (Osler Bibliography, #1360.) A very handsome copy in its rather uncommon DJ.

198. Paccard, André. Mamounia, Marrakech, Maroc. Paris: Atelier 74, 1987. First Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows very minimal edge wear, small (1mm), closed, tear. Silver boards, embossed, gilt decorative elements black ink lettering. 4to. 273pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Index. Hardcover. Fine in Near Fine Dust Jacket. (417) $450.00
The author, Andre Paccard also did Traditional Islamic Craft in Moroccan Architecture (Editions Atelier, France, 2 vols). This rather expensive coffee-table tome was written by the architect much favored by King Hassan. The text is arguably dry but it is wonderfully illustrated and - unusually - includes photographs of Moroccan Royal Palaces currently in use.

199. Packer, Thomas. The Dyer's Guide: being an introduction to the art of dyeing linen, cotton, silk, and wool, silk and muslin, dresses, furniture, etc. London: Sherwood, Neely, and Jones, 1816. Presswork by David Wolfe, Wolfe Editions. Includes contributions by May Sarton, Eliot Stanley, Francis O'Brien, John Vincent Healy and many others. This being one of four copies exceptionally bound by Grey Parrot.

203. Peirce, Waldo; Kent, Rockwell (illus). Unser Kent: Original Signed Lithograph by Kent as Frontispiece. Cortlandt, NY: Privately Published, 1930. First Edition Thus/Limited Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, tips through, gentle bump at heel, touch of toning at spine, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, vellum spine, blue patterned paper boards, red leather label at front board, gilt lettering and decorative elements, frontispiece, teg. 4to. np. Illus. (b/w plates). (See, Zigrosser, 61; Jones, 30) One of 85 copies. Hardcover. Very Good+ [Textblock Fine]. No DJ as Issued. (4209) $2,250.00

Plate at front board reads, "His Flute Might Break But 'Tis never Bent Such Is The Secret of Unser Kent." Bookplate of noted collector, Bayard Kilgour, Jr. at front pastedown (see, Dickinson, p.192). Follows first printing of 13 copies in 1928 so filled with errors that Kent stopped the run and made corrections before printing the 85 copies [current status of 13 unknown]. Very scarce volume as most are now institutionalized. Includes a signed lithograph by Rockwell Kent entitled "The Olympian Peirce reading his terrific lines to a group of young ladies". Satiric poem of Rockwell Kent by Peirce. A handsome copy of this very scare Kent volume, signed by the artist.

204. Perkins, John. Floral Designs for the Table: Being Directions for its Ornamentation with Leaves, Flowers & Fruit with Classified Lists of Suitable Plants, Berries and Leaves, and Twenty-Four Original Coloured Designs. London: Wyman & Sons, 1877. First Edition. Very Good [Fine save Sadler's notations, which are could well be viewed as a strong positive] in Very Good DJ. (4832) $850.00

The first monograph on this profoundly significant figure. Includes a chronology of Adler's life and work and a list of books contained in his architectural library. From the library of noted architect and writer on architecture, J. Sadler. Sadler was prone to marginalia and laying in clippings and ephemera related to a given book's subject. The presence of marginal notes or marks will be noted above and are absent if not so noted. In this case, the notations are quite interesting, as is the laid in letter regarding Adler homes. A handsome copy.

211. Puppi, Lionello. Andrea Palladio. New York: New York Graphic Society, 1973. First English Language Edition. Owner signature at front pastedown and minor notation at rear pastedown, else tight, bright and unmarred. cloth boards, red and black ink lettering and pictorial elements, frontispiece, tissueguard. 12mo. 73pp. Illus. (color plates). Hardcover.. Very Good. No DJ. (4016) $165.00

First Edition, BAL's secondary, and simpler, binding. A brisk tale of pirates and colonial Philadelphia. (BAL 16412. Smith P-661). A handsome copy of this rather uncommon Pyle title.

215. Pyle, Howard [Field, Eugene]. The Garden Behind the Moon [Association Copy; Inscribed by Pyle to Eugene Fields; Letter Laid in to Field's Widow]. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1895. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, bottom fore-tip gently bumped, lengthy inscription by author at first blank, else tight, bright and unmarred. Green cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, green and red ink lettering, frontispiece. 8vo. 192pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good+ [Textblock Fine]. No DJ. (5698) $3,500.00

One of Pyle's last books for young people, the backstory to particular this volume is second to none. It was inscribed by Pyle to renowned poet and author, Eugene Field, "To Eugene Field, My fellow worker in the world of art" and below the inscription, also in Pyles hand is a lovely 12 line poem [N.B. no reference to the poem can be found and it is possible that this is a previously unknown Pyle work]. The inscription and poem are dated November 3rd, 1895. Eugene Field died, unexpectedly, on November 4th, 1895, and Pyle clearly heard about it very quickly as there is a letter laid in to his widow, dated November 10, 1895, expressing his deep sympathies and fond memories and presenting the inscribed copy to her in memory of her husband. An exceptional addition to a sophisticated Pyle collection.

216. Rawlings, Marjorie Kinnan; Weisgard, Leonard (illus). The Secret River. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1955. First Edition. Minimal shelf/edge wear, artist's signature on ffep, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows very minor shelf/edge wear, hint of toning at spine, small closed tear at rear of head, else bright and clean. Brown cloth boards, white ink lettering and pictorial elements, brown paper leaves. Small 8vo. np. Illus. (black and white ink plates). Hardcover.. Fine in Very Good DJ. (4048) $950.00

First edition (with "A" on title page), signed by Weisgard on ffep. Published posthumously, it is understood that she and her editor held back publishing it hoping to expand it into a larger work. Richly illustrated by Weisgard, the story is lovely in its own right and was Rawlings only true "children's" book. Quite rare as Weisgard did not sign a great number of books; a very handsome copy.

217. Ribemont-Dessaigues, G.; [Picabia, Germaine Everling]; [Dada]. Deja Jadis: ou Du Mouvement Dada A L'Espace Abstrait [Association Copy]. Paris: Juilliard, 1958. First Printing. Very minor shelf/edge wear, long notation at ffep, minor notation at half-title, some discrete underlining/marginalia in first few signature, light toning at page edges, else tight and clean. Original printed wraps. 8vo. 300pp. Original Wraps. Very Good+ in Wraps. (6553) $1,500.00

Germaine Everling Picabia's copy, with long holographic note in French on the first blank which gives a devastating and beautiful portrait of the author, her fellow Dadaist G. Ribemont-Dessaigues. "Dada attracted him by the possibility he saw to express his rancor...he was perhaps the most sincerely revolutionary of the Dadaists. Multiple disappointments spoiled his childish and charming nature and gave him an acidity of mind that gnawed him. Of a fragile constitution, he would arrive at Emile Augier (sp?) street shivering aloud from sentimental complications. One day G. de Zayes asked him what he thought of love, and he replied 'Ah, it is more tiring to think of than to do.' We called him the Dada angel."

218. Rondot, Natalis; Persoz, M.J.; Michel, M.A.-F. Notice du Vert de Chine: et de la Teinture en Vert Chez les Chinois. Suivie d'une etude des proprietes chimiques et tinctoriales du Lo-kaio. Et de recherches sur lat matiere colorante des nerpruns indigenes [Presentation Copy]. Paris: Chambre de Commerce de Lyon, 1858. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, rebounded, tips through, light even toning, owners bookplate at the front pastedown, tipped in letter at front, very minor sporadic foxing (focused at prelinimaries), fold at edge of fold-out plates, else tight, bright and unmarred. Halfbound, brown leather spine and tips, moire pattern cloth boards, marbled endpages, marbled textblock edges, fold out plates, tipped in dyed fabric samples. 8vo. 207pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Index. Hardcover. Very Good. (6597) $1,500.00

Tipped in two page handwritten letter on blue French paper by Rondot embodying the presentation of the book to the original owner and discussing the contents. Two folding botanical plates (tipped in) and five dyed fabric samples tipped in. A handsome copy of this significant work. Seldom found in this condition, rare with letter as found here.

219. Rose, Alan (supporting text by O'Rourke, P.J.). Three (original art) Illustrations: Boyhood Pensions Realized as Aircraft and Spacecraft (set of three illustrations). New York: Alan Rose/National Lampoon, circa 1977. Spot of tape ghosting on one board, else bright and clean. Pen, ink and watercolor on board. All approximately 9"x14". Color illustrations. Fine. (3058) $3,500.00

These three illustrations supported an article by P.J. O'Rourke in the National Lampoon (circa '76-77). This was from the "Conspiracy Issue". The penships had to do with the Air Forces' secret weapons, which curiously resembled ball point pens. The artist suggests it was supposed to "remind certain males of their 14 year-old, bored classroom fantasies." A truly exceptional collection of images. Signatures/personalization by both Rose and O'Rourke available.

220. Rothschild, Lionel Walte. A Monograph of the Genus Casuarius: With a Dissertation on the Morphology and Phylogeny of the Palaeognathae (Ratitae and Crypturi) and Neognathae (Carinatae) by W.P. Pycraft. Transactions of the Zoological Society of London, 1900. First Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, minimal toning at textblock edges (slightly more at preliminaries), ownership signature at first blank, two owner bookplates at front pastedown, else tight, bright and unmarred. Halfbound, black leather spine and tips, dark green textured paper boards (faux-leather pattern), five raised bands, gilt lettering and decorative elements, decorative floral endpages. 4to. pp 109-290. Illus. (b/w plates, hand-colored). Zoological Society Transactions, Vol XV, pt. vi. , pp 109-290. Hardcover. Near Fine. (5715) $5,500.00

Includes 18 hand-colored plates, 4 b/w skeletal plates and two hand colored maps. One of the bookplates shows this to have been in the collection of famed Danish ornithologist, Finn Salomonsen (1909-1983), author of 19 ornithological volumes. Also shows bookplate of William Todd, well-known aviculturist in the zoo field and former Assistant Curator of Birds at the Houston Zoo (now retired). Signature, dated 1909, is that of Danish zoologist, H.C. Wegge. A handsome copy, with a distinguished provenance, of this renowned and scarce volume.

221. Sackville-West, V. Nursery Rhymes. London: The Dropmore Press, 1947. First Edition thus. Tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows touch of wear at head and midpoint (aligned with tabs in slipcase), spine slightly toned. Slipcase shows moderate shelf wear at corners and bottom, back strip missing. Blue cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, inner gilt dentelles. 4to. 66pp. Limited Edition, this being 526 of 550. Printed on a hand press on hand-made paper. This copy is completely uncut. Hardcover. Fine in Very Good+ DJ and Very Good-Slipcase. (1289) $625.00

A very handsome copy of this scarce volume. Genuinely rare in its uncut form.

222. Salverte, Eusebe; Thomson, Anthony Todd (trans. & ed.); Arago, Francois (biography). The Philosophy of Magic: The Occult Sciences ... Prodigious, and Apparent Miracles - With Notes Illustrative, Explanatory and Critical. London: [Schulze & Co. for] Richard Bentley, 1846. First English Language Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, light wear at head, tail and tips, light rubbing to boards, barest hint of toning at text block edges, small moisture stain at top of textblock of Vol. 1 (non-penetrating), else tight, bright and unmarred. Halfbound, burgundy leather spine and tips, five raised bands, gilt lettering and decorative elements, marbled boards, brown endpages, speckled dye at textblock edges. 8vo. 2 vols. xlii, 356; ix, 387pp. Index. Hardcover. Very Good+ [Textblocks Near Fine]. No DJ as Issued. (5468) $450.00

This edition includes a short biography of Salverte by Francois Arago. Anne-Joseph Eusèbe Baconnière de Salverte was writer and philosopher (b. Paris, 1771; d. 1839). The focus of the text is on the nature of scientific "magic" (e.g. electricity, magnetism, conjuring, juggling, ventriloquism, and fireworks) as well as the historic elements of the occult sciences. Anthony Todd Thompson (1778-1849) was the son of the Postmaster General in Georgia. He studied at Edinburgh and was a physician in London noted for his work with skin diseases and as a professor of Materia Medica at the University of London. A very handsome set of this genuine classic. Oft reprinted, quite scarce in the original English edition.

223. Schanilec, Gaylord. Farmers: Wood Engravings - Interviews. Stockholm, WI: Midnight Paper Sales Press, 1989. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Burnt umber cloth boards, paper labels, black ink lettering. 8vo. 56pp. Illus. (color plates). Limited numbered edition, this being 157 of 174. Hardcover. Fine. No DJ, as Issued. (6565) $1,750.00

A very fine copy of one of Gaylord's early works.

224. Schulz, Charles M. Peanuts Jubilee: My Life and Art with Charlie Brown and Others [Inscribed with Snoopy Sketch]. New York: Holt Rinehart Winston, 1975. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, several small dings, inscribed by author at half-title, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows moderate shelf/edge wear, several small, closed tears, minor chipping, some tape repairs, light soiling, else bright. Silver paper boards, brown lettering, brown endpages. Oblong 4to. 222pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Laid in photo of inscribtee at opening of "Snoopy"; Playbill for the world premiere of "Snoopy!!!" (the musical). Hardcover. Very Good+ in Good+ DJ. (6065) $3,000.00

Contains 134 color feature pages of Schulz's favorite episodes and richly illustrated text exploring his life and his art. Inscribed by Schulz, "To Alice with Friendship - Charles Schulz" with a large smiling Snoopy sketch. Photograph is an official premiere photograph (with the "Snoopy!!!" branding at the top, included are the inscribtee, Alice Mazurie and Dr. Patrick Hazard (then a Professor at Beaver College). Hazard interviewed

Lux Mentis, Booksellers Show Catalogue (SF & LA 2009)

Schulz following the show and his student, Alice, accompanied and assisted him. Schulz inscribed the volume to her following the interview. Inscribed Schulz material is rather uncommon...relatively early and with a sketch are quite scarce.

225. Schutzenberger, M.P. Traite Des Matieres Colorantes: comprenant leurs applications à la teinture et à l'impression et des notices sur les fibres textiles, les épaississants et les mordants, publié sous les auspices de la société industrielle de Mulhouse [Treaty on Coloring Matters: applications including dyeing and printing and references on textile fibers, thickeners and [mordant], published under the auspices of the Industrial Society of Mulhouse]. Paris: Masson, 1867. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, tips bumped, spine lightly toned, several small nicks at spines, very minor foxing at preliminaries, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, red leather spine, marbled paper boards, floral endpages, tipped in fabric samples, fold-out plate. 8vo. 544pp; 646pp plus 1p Index. Illus. (b/w plates). Index. Hardcover. Very Good. No DJ, as issued. (6617) $650.00

Original edition of this important treatise is fundamental to the study of the history of dyestuffs for dyeing and printing textiles. Folding plate with 12 magnified views of vegetable fibers, numerous illustrations, 74 samples of dyed/printed fabrics tipped in (39 in the first volume and 35 in the second). A handsome set of this rather uncommon work.

226. Scott, Sir Walter. Rokeby. Edinburgh: Printed by James Ballantyne, 1815. Sixth Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, hint of foxing at preliminaries, else tight, bright and unmarred. Halfbound, black leather spine and tips, marbled paper boards, marbled endpages and textblock edges. 8vo. 413pp. Hardcover. Very Good+. (6290) $75.00
A very handsome copy of this minor classic.

227. Serette, David W. Le Jeux de Cupidon. Portland, ME: Yellow Kid Press, 1971/1982. First Edition Thus. Upper tips gently bumped, else tight, bright and unmarred. Original folded sleeve shows light shelf/wear and soiling, else bright. Mustard yellow wraps, black ink lettering and decorative elements, printed endpages, frontispiece. Small 64mo. (1 5/8 x 1 15/16). 28pp. Illus. (color plates). Original Wraps. Near Fine in Wraps. (5294) $245.00

"By D. Serette, Boss Printer. 1982 Note: Only 75 sets of signatures survived to be bound. DWS." It appears that while 750 were printed in the original run (as a forerunner to Serette's Cherubikon), they were not bound until 1982. The contents are the same as Cherubikon, but organized differently. Based on 17th Century woodcuts given to Serette by Fred Anthoensen (Southworth/Anthoensen Press). Seldom found with its original sleeve. A very handsome copy of this rather scarce volume.

228. Sewell, Anna. Black Beauty: The Autobiography of a Horse - With Fifty Illustrations. Philadelphia, PA : Henry Altemus, 1897. First Edition Thus. Two small sunning spots at spine (matching chips), penciled ownership signature at ffepp, toning from flaps at endpages, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows several small chips and small closed tears, light even toning, else bright and clean. Red cloth boards, black and green ink lettering and pictorial elements, color frontispiece. 12mo. 199pp plus 16pp ads. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good+ in Very Good- DJ. (6618) $125.00

Altemus' Young People's Library. Color frontis and 3 other plates, others in b/w. An uncommon illustrated edition, quite scarce in DJ.

229. Seymour, Ralph. Across the Gulf. Chiago, IL: Alderbrink Press, 1928. Limited Edition. Minor shelf/edge wear, one small spot of rubbing at the lower fore-edge of the front board, touch of toning to cloth spine, very minor foxing at preliminaries, else tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, beige buckrum spine, gold paper boards and spine label, black ink lettering and decorative elements, fold out plate. 4to. 63pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Numbered limited edition, this being 207 of 425. Signed twice by the author. Hardcover. Very Good. No DJ. (6622) $425.00
In addition to the signature required at the colophon, this copy is inscribed and signed at the copyright page to a friend ("Mr: Goodhue"). Overall, a handsome copy.

shelf/edge wear, several spots of what appears to be white paint, else tight and clean. Quarterbound, brown leather spine, beige silk boards, teg. 4to. 82pp. Limited numbered edition this being 862 of 1250, signed by artist. Hardcover. Near Fine in Near Fine Slipcase. (4203) $375.00

Typography by Will Ransom. Construction in the Japanese folded-leaf fashion. Bookplate of Fred M. Hellman. Beautifully illustrated (and signed) by Kent. Overall, a handsome copy.

232. Shakespeare, William; Morley, Christopher (preface); Wright, William Aldis (ed); Kent, Rockwell (illus). The Complete Works of William Shakespeare [In Two Volumes]. Garden City, NY: Doubleday, Doran, 1936. First Edition Thus/Limited Edition. Light toning to vellum labels, bookplate of noted Kent collector Eliot Stanley at front pastedowns (printed by Anthoensen Press), touch of toning at endpages (as typical), else tight, bright and unmarred. Slipcase shows light/moderate shelf/edge wear, wear at fore-edge, most seams split, all seams reinforced with Japanese hinge paper at inside, several small bits of tape at upper seams, moisture spotting at top and onlay, else clean. Blue beveled cloth boards, vellum spine labels, gilt lettering and decorative elements, frontispiece(s), teg. 4to. 1527pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Limited numbered edition, this being 543 of 750, signed by Kent. Hardcover. Near Fine [Textblock Fine] in Good+ Slipcase. (5505) $950.00

The Cambridge Edition text, edited by William Wright. Preface by Christopher Morley. Each play is illustrated with a full page plate by Rockwell Kent (titled at verso). Designed by A.P. Tedesco and printed at the Country Life Press. Infamous for a slipcase with paper seams (unreinforced, no cloth, etc) so prone to failure it is nearly impossible to find intact/undamaged. Noted flaws to the slipcase notwithstanding, a very handsome set.

233. Shelley, Percy Bysshe; Shelley Robinson, Charles (illus). The Sensitive Plant. London: Heinemann & Lippincott, nd [1911]. First Edition Thus. Minor shelf/edge wear, small, closed splits at hinge, else tight, bright and unmarred. Green cloth boards, gilt lettering and pictorial elements, pictorial endpages, frontispiece, teg. 8vo. 128pp. Illus. (color plates). Hardcover. Very Good [Textblock Fine]. No DJ. (6030) $350.00

234. Smith, Mary P. Wells; Smith, Jessie Willcox (illus). The Young Puritans in Captivity. Boston, MA: Little, Brown and Co., 1899. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, touch of toning at preliminaries, else tight, bright and unmarred. Grey cloth boards, gilt and red ink lettering, black and white ink decorative elements, decorative endpages, frontispiece, tissueguard. 12mo. 323pp plus ads. Illus. (b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good+ [Textblock Near Fine]. No DJ. (4014) $225.00
A handsome copy of this rather scarce volume.

235. Smith, Seba. Powhatan: A Metrical Romance, in Seven Cantos [signed by the author]. New York: Harper and Brothers, 1841. First Edition (presumed). Moderate shelf/edge wear, tips through, fraying at head and tail, tide marks at bottom of text block, insect holes at rear hinge, light foxing at preliminaries, signed by author at ffep, else tight, bright and unmarred. Brown cloth boards, gilt lettering and pictorial element, in blind decorative elements. 8vo. 199pp. Notes. Inscribed by the author. Hardcover. Good. No DJ as Issued. (6245) $450.00
Inscribed to Gardiner Kellogg (Dartmouth College graduate and minister in ME in the early 1800s). A long and infamously bad "historical poem". A well known review says nothing of the historical substance of the poem as he was too wrapped up in how bad it is, "We never saw any one so uncommonly bad." Smith, best known as one of the first vernacular humorists with his Maine Jack Downing character, here focuses on Powhatan, the man, not the tribe. Pocahontas does not play a major role (though there's a long note about her taken from Burk in the notes). A presentable copy of this rather uncommon work...scarce signed, as here.

236. Southey, Robert. The Expedition of Orsua; and the Crimes of Aguirre. Philadelphia, PA: Hickman and Hazzard, 1821. First American Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, minor loss at tail and front hinge, tips through, touch of foxing at preliminaries, else tight, bright and unmarred. Small 8vo. 178pp. Hardcover. Very Good. No DJ as Issued. (6215) $275.00
Overall, a handsome copy of a work seldom found in this condition.

237. Spooner, W.W. Historic Families of America: Armorial Edition [Complete in Three Volumes]. New York: Historic Families Pub., nd. [circa 1910]. First Edition/Limited Edition. Very minor shelf/edge wear, hint of sun at spines, else tight, bright and unmarred. Full brown leather, five raised bands, gilt lettering and decorative elements, dentelles, silk endpages, tipped in plates, tissueguards, frontispiece(s), aeg, coats-of-arms in color and gilt. Small fo. 380pp; 336pp; 386pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Index(s). Hardcover. Near Fine. (5140) $7,500.00
Rather scarce in any edition, this is one of the "Armorial Edition - Limited to fifty numbered and registered sets", this being the copy sold to the Jay Family. It is our understanding that one of these "Armorial Editions" were offered to each of the families included. Originally offered [circa 1910] for $300, this edition set the benchmark for their genre. Well-crafted histories, richly illustrated, beautifully bound and containing exceptionally printed coat-of-arms (in color and showing silver and gold gilding), they are quite remarkable.

Lux Mentis, Booksellers Show Catalogue (SF & LA 2009)

From the library of Susan Mary Alsop. Born Susan Mary Jay in Rome in 1918, she was the daughter of Peter Augustus Jay (and Susan Alexander McCook) and granddaughter of Augustus Jay (and Emily Astor Kane), both statesmen, legates and/or ambassadors (in Europe, Asia and South America). The Jays, a Huguenot family, produced John Jay, co-author of the Federalist Papers, Foreign Secretary and the first Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Many of the volumes from her library were from that of her father and grand father and are so inscribed (as noted). Susan Mary [Jay] Alsop, in addition to being one of the great political hostesses in Washington's circles, was an author in her own right, producing a noted biography of Vita Sackville-West's mother, "Lady Sackville" (1978); and also "Yankees at the Court: The First Americans in Paris" (1982), and "The Congress Dances: Vienna 1814-1815" (1984). A very handsome set of an edition that very rarely sees the open market.

238. Stanley, Eliot; [Kent, Rockwell]. Rediscovering Rockwell Kent: Books Graphics, Decorative Arts - Selections from the Collection of Eliot H. Stanley. New York: Grolier Club, 1997. First Edition/Limited Edition. Signed by Eliot Stanley on the limitation page, else tight bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, black leather spine, blue marbled paper boards, gilt lettering, color pictorial frontispiece. Small 8vo. 39pp. Illus. (color plate). Signed, limited edition, this being "G" of the 26 specially bound copies. Hardcover. Fine. No DJ, as Issued. (5461) $325.00

Exhibition catalogue of a Kent show held at The Grolier Club. Includes a short essay by the collector, 100 items listed and a color pencil and watercolor by Kent. One of 26 deluxe lettered copies bound by Gray Parrott. A very handsome copy.

239. Stein, Gertrude; Hurd, Clement (illus). The World Is Round: [Together with] The World is Not Flat [by Edith Thatcher Hurd]. San Francisco, CA: Arion Press, 1986. First Edition/Limited Edition. World is Round shows tiny spot of discoloration at text block edge (prolonged contact with ephemera ballon), else tight, bright and unmarred. World is Flat is tight, bright and unmarred. Original square box shows light shelf/edge wear, else bright and clean. Both volumes show red cloth boards, blue ink lettering and pictorial elements. Round 8vo; Square 12mo. 119pp; 47pp. Illus. (b/w and blue ink plates). Limited edition of 400 copies. Prospectus and "World is Round" balloon laid in. Hardcover. Fine. No DJ, as Issued. (3644) $550.00

Stein's first children's book (Margaret Wise Brown encouraged her to write one). A wonderful story illustrated by Hurd's exceptional illustrations. A very handsome copy of this classic.

240. Stephens, John Lloyd. Incidents of Travel in Central America, Chiapas, and Yucatan. London: John Murray, 1843. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, spines lightly toned and dry, closed split at rear hinge of Vol. 2, glue toning at pastedowns, some tissueguards toned, else tight, bright and unmarred. Full brown leather boards, five raised bands, black leather label, gilt lettering and decorative elements, large fold-out frontispiece(s), tissueguards, silk ribbon bound in. 8vo. 459pp; 478pp. Illus. (b/w plates). Appendix(es). Hardcover. Very Good+/Good [Textblocks Near Fine]. (6610) $1,250.00

Noted flaws notwithstanding, a very presentable copy of this important work.

241. Stevenson, Robert Louis; Smith, Jessie Willcox (illus). A Child's Garden of Verses. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1905. First Edition Thus. Light shelf/edge wear, light toning to spine, minor rubbing to front pastedown, touch of soiling to front endpages, gift inscription (dated 1905) on ffep, else tight, bright and unmarred. Black cloth boards, gilt lettering, color paper onlay, decorative endpages, printed tissueguards, teg. Small 4to. 125pp. Illus. (color and b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good. No DJ. (3940) $145.00

Overall, a handsome copy of this well-known classic.

Lux Mentis, Booksellers Show Catalogue (SF & LA 2009)

Numerically stated first printing (Toledano A73). Signed by Gorey under his crossed out name on the title page. A very handsome copy of a work increasingly difficult to find in pristine condition.

244. Stone, Leon (ed) [Lovecraftiana]. Koolinda [Issues 1-8: Complete Set]. Gordon, Sydney: Australian Library Amateur Journalism, 1950. Limited Edition(s). Very minor shelf/edge wear, Vol. 2 shows very small closed tear at fore-edge, else tight, bright and unmarred. Each issue in different color wrap, tipped-in plates, laid in musical score, and other bits of ephemera. 12mo. Various pag. Original Wraps. Near Fine in Wraps. (6502) $650.00
Privately printed by Stone in editions of 250-300 copies per issue. Unusual little Australian fine press journal dedicated to literature, printing, and journalism. While issue No. 7/8 is entirely devoted to R.L. Stevenson in Australia (and includes a tipped in image of this family), the series is most acclaimed among the followers (and collectors) of H. P. Lovecraft. The series includes Lovecraftiana that is not found elsewhere and included interesting/unusual bibliopolic elements (including a great list of known pseudonyms. A complete set of this quite scarce journal.

"Decorations in Tint by Wilfred J. Jones." First state copy, with decorative endpapers and with the design on page 18 rightside-up. First separate and first illustrated edition, preceded by the 1906 "The $30,000 Bequest and Other Stories" (unillustrated). (Blanck 3683; McBride 247). A handsome copy of this rather uncommon volume.

254. Two US Capitols Photography Albums. nd [circa 1930s]. Unique Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, tips through at heads, one image apparently missing from front pastedown of Vol. 2, else tight, bright and unmarred. Black textured paper boards (faux-leather), in blind decorative elements, gilt lettering, stringbound. Oblong 4to. np. Illus. (b/w plates). Hardcover. Very Good+. [Images Fine]. (6010) $2,500.00
The collection consists of 764 b/w images of the 48 US state capitols and that of the US Capitol in Washington, DC. Vol. 1 (364 images) starts with Washington, DC and covers Alabama through Montana. Vol. 2 (400 images) covers Nebraska through Wyoming. The last 3 pages of Vol. 2 shows images of the interior of the various capitol domes. Each state capitol includes one 5x7 or 4x6 inch image surrounded by smaller images of varying sizes (most 2.5x2.5 or 4.5x2.5 inch). Each image mounted with black corner-tabs and includes a stamped number at verso (no handwritten notations). Several of the dome images show blue stamp of "Omaha, Nebraska / Sept. 25, 1937 / Kodatone". State pages also show what appears to be a later state stamp (removable). These volumes embody a remarkable collection of images. The unknown photographer traveled the country collecting images of the (then existing) state capitol. The photographer captured not only the facade of each building but, in most cases, all sides and the interior of the various domes. The images capture, if you will, the body politic of American governmental architecture. An exceptional and unique collection of images.

*Stephenson states these are a "detailed series of maps indicating fortifications, roads, railroads, houses, names of residents, fences, drainage, vegetation, and relief by hachures." (Stephenson 518) The color embodied in these first edition maps makes these significantly more readable than the later editions. This atlas contains all 16 maps as required of the 1869 edition (including the often missing "Harper's Ferry"); interestingly, one of the extra maps tipped in at rear is the "South Mountain" map that was not included in the original 1869 printing but was included in the 1872 second printing. Originally published as a portfolio of loose plates with a title page, this set was tab-bound (so the maps open flat with no loss) with additional, related maps.*

The original maps include, in order:

- 1: Richmond (double folio; 1.5":1mi scale)
- 2: Appomattox Court House (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 3: The Wilderness (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 4: Spottsylvania Court House (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 5: High Bridge and Farmville (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 6: Jetersville and Sailors Creek (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 7: Bermuda Hundred (double folio; 1.5":1mi)
- 8: Petersburg and Five Forks (double folio; 1.5":1mi)
- 9: Totopotomoy (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 10: Harper's Ferry (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 11: North Anna (folio; 3":1mi)
- 12: Gettysburg and Appomattox Court House (double folio x2)
- 13: Antietam (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 14: Cold Harbor (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 15: Chancellorville (double folio; 3":1mi)
- 16: Fredericksburg (double folio; 3":1mi)

Additional maps include, in order:

- 1: Campaign Maps Army of the Potomac Map No. 1 Yorktown to Williamsburg (double folio (fold-out); b/w; map compiled 1862; engraved by Dongal)
- 2: Campaign Maps Army of the Potomac Map No. 2 Williamsburg to White House (double folio (fold-out); b/w; engraved by Dongal)
- 3: South Mountain (double folio, b/w, N.B. omitted from the original 1869 P&J atlas but added in the 1872 second printing, included here as part of the compendium material)
- 4: Map of the Battle Field of Gettysburg - Day One, July 1st, 1863 (oversized double folio (fold-out), color, 1":1000', First Printing, 1876) [N.B. This set of three Gettysburg maps are extremely desirable and equally hard to find either together or in good condition...a spectacular addition to this collection.]
- 5: Map of the Battle Field of Gettysburg - Day Two, July 2st, 1863 (oversized double folio (fold-out), color, 1":1000', First Printing, 1876)
- 6: Map of the Battle Field of Gettysburg - Day Three, July 3st, 1863 (oversized double folio (fold-out), color, 1":1000', First Printing, 1876)
- 7: Map of the Vicinity of Hagerstown, Funkstown, Williamsport, and Falling Waters Maryland. (showing positions circa Oct. 1, 1863, oversized double folio, color, 1879)

263. Wakefield, D.R. An Alphabet of Extinct Mammals. The Chevington Press, 2009. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Quarterbound, brown leather spine, hand-made pastepaper boards. fo. Illus. (color plates). One of 55 numbered copies. Hardcover. Fine. No DJ, as issued. (6624) $3,000.00

Twenty-seven printed color etchings including frontis [self] portrait. Etchings printed on a 19th century star wheel engraving press. Text set by the artist and printed on an early Ullmer and Watts Albion Press. Bound by Grey Parrot (who also made the paste paper). A stunning return to the nature history books Wakefield created in the 1980s, in which he has taken the theme of mammalian extinction and created an alphabet of animals which no longer exist. The artist's lifelong obsession with natural history has been transferred to these sadly extinct creatures with his beautifully rendered etchings and explanatory notes.

269. Waters, Thomas [William Russell]. Recollections of a Policeman. New York: Cornish, Lamport & Co., 1852. First Edition/Pirate Edition. Moderate shelf/edge wear (fraying at head and tail, tips through), light toning at spine, minor soiling to boards, corners gently bumped, light foxing at preliminaries, minor cutting error at 181/2 (edge only), else tight, bright and unmarred. Red cloth boards, gilt lettering, in blind decorative elements, decorative/advert endpages (blue ink, decorative borders and ads for various Cornish titles). Small 8vo. 238pp. Hardcover. Good+ [Textblock Very Good]. No DJ. (5759) $1,500.00
Unusual little tome of early crime fiction and one of only 5 or 6 known copies bound in red boards [typically found in brown boards]. "Waters" was the pseudonym for William Russell, one of the earliest crafters of detective fiction in the UK. The first "official" printing was in London, under a slightly different name, in 1856 and then in the US later that year. This printing was apparently a pirate edition, preceding the official by an inexplicable 4 years [Waters, Recollections of a Detective Police-Officer. London, J&C Brown, 1856. (Queen's Quorum 2. Hubin (1994), p. 843)]. Noted flaws notwithstanding, a rather handsome copy of this very scarce title, rare in red boards.

270. Wharton, Edith. Ethan Frome [Fine Press/Fine Binding]. Portland, ME: Ascensius Press, 2002. Limited Edition. Tight, bright and unmarred. Slipcase tight and clean. Halfbound, brown leather spine and fore-edges, custom made pastepaper boards, gilt lettering; green cloth clamshell box, brown leather spine label, gilt lettering. 8vo. Numbered, limited edition, this being 36 of 50. Hardcover. Fine in Fine Drop-spine Box. (4464) $1,200.00
Half-leather by Daniel Gehnrich, with beautiful handmade pastepaper board. Printed on handmade paper by Mac-Gregor and Vinzani (Whiting, ME) in 12 point Linotype Janson. Exceptionally designed by Scott Vile of Ascensius Press, this volume is the perfect marriage of fine press work and a elegant binding. It appears to be the only true private/letterpress edition of Wharton's Ethan Frome. A simply stunning work.

271. Wilde, Oscar; Robinson, Charles (illus). The Happy Prince and Other Stories. London: Putnam's Sons, 1913. First Edition Thus. Light shelf/edge wear, spines heavily sunned, split at both hinges, minor fraying at head and tale, light sunning to boards, minor glue ghosting at endpages, else tight, bright and unmarred. Green cloth boards, gilt lettering and decorative elements, frontispiece, tipped in plates. 8vo. 134pp. Illus. (color plates). Hardcover. Good+ [Textblock Fine]. No DJ. (6029) $225.00
The stories show a marked influence of Hans Andersen and an almost uniformly bitter outlook life. Wilde said of the book that it was "an attempt to mirror modern life in a form remote from reality" not for children, but for childlike people from eighteen to eighty. (The Oxford Companion to Children Literature). [Mason 324. de Frietas p.86.] First iteration illustrated by Charles Robinson. Only 5000 copies printed (including UK copies bearing Duckworth imprint). Noted flaws notwithstanding, a handsome copy of this rather scarce edition.

272. Williams, Bernice, et al. Wild Animal Crackers: Designed and Cut by 10B Art Class 1930. [Madison, WI?]: 10B Art Class, 1930. First Edition. Light shelf/edge wear, small chips in lower corner of first few leaves, small closed tear at rear, paper toned and very brittle, else tight and unmarred. Light brown paper wraps, black ink relief printed title, stringbound in the Japanese style, black thread, frontispiece. 4to. np. Illus. (b/w plates). Index. Original Wraps. Very Good in Wraps. (6526) $750.00

A simply exceptional alphabet book. Each page (including front wrap, frontispiece, title, and index) a full page relief cut (woodcut or, more likely linocut). Each plate image is signed by the artist. Paper choice has made this very brittle. A wonderful collection of work.

273. Witkin, Joel Peter. Photographs [Inscribed copy]. Pasadena, CA: Twelvtree Press, 1985. First Edition. Incrised by author at title page, on leaf shows small rumple in corner, else tight, bright and unmarred. DJ shows slightest shelf/edge wear, else bright and clean. Black cloth boards, in blind lettering, grey endpages. 4to. np. Illus. (b/w plates). Inscribed by artist. Hardcover. Fine in Near Fine DJ. (5342) $750.00

Inscribed to and in the original shipping package addressed to Lawrence William Braun, a minor (though perhaps emerging) photographer. These 44 plates and two drawings, together with an exhibition history and bibliography, represent the first monograph of Witkin's work. A very handsome copy.

274. Wrightson, Bernie. Mary Shelley's Frankenstein: A Portfolio [Complete - Three Limited Edition Portfolios]. New York: Tyrannosaurus Press/Les Editions Du Triton, 1977, 1978, 1980. PI includes laid in sheet announcing the "upcoming publication of a newly illustrated edition of Mary Shelly's Frankenstein. ... Mr. Wrightson, in a fit of artistic dedication and neurotic determination, has creased work on all other projects, and is currently bending every effort toward the completion of the Frankenstein illustrations. He has already spent a full year on the book--he will spend AT LEAST another two on it before finishing." P3 "...celebrates the completion of his illustrations...originally conceived to contain fifty full-page illustrations...the present collection of six plates, all featuring the Monster, will not appear in the final book". Portfolio 3 is designed to hold all three sets. Uncommon generally, very scarce complete.

275. Zaslav, Neal. W.A. Mozart: Portfolio of a Genius. A Collection of Annotated Facsimiles Documenting His Life & Works. New York/Vermont: Thornwillow Press/Stinehour Press, 1991. Limited Edition. Loose portfolios and facsimile sheets all bright and clean. Drop-spine clamshell case shows minor shelf/edge wear, tips through, very minor soiling, else tight. Portfolio in green linen, moire-lined, gilt lettering. fo. Limited numbered edition of 550 copies. This set the printer's copy and unnumbered, but signed by author.
